My dear Brother

I can never deny myself the pleasure of offering you my congratulations on the 12th of August and begging you to believe that amongst the many wishes formed for your happiness on that day none are more sincere than mine who am most truly attached to you and anxious for every thing that can contribute to your Comfort

Allow me dear Brother to recommend to your notice Baron de Kempfen one of the Duches Chamberlains who will have the Honour of giving You this Letter.

His having been with us constantly in the Country may perhaps be agreeable to You as he can by that means give You very exact accounts of me.

I am happy to hear that Your health is much amended and hope the Military life You have lead of late will be very useful to You as it amuses us well at quiet You exercise. I believe in a few days I shall go to Hohentweil to see the Prussian Troops which are to be at Augsbourg on the 4th. I hope they will meet with the same Success as they do in Italy.

Every body speaks with delight of your dear little Girl I make constant enquiries after her as I believe her to be an object of great consequence to your happiness and every day she will grow more interesting and charming to you.

The Duke begs to be remembered to you and I will take up no more of your time than to add how sincerely I am

Dearest Brother
Your affectionate sister Charlotte.
