Sir

Mr. Bed in this moment come from Messrs De Royneval, who had in the instant seen a private Letter from Paris dated Saturday, upon which he can entirely depend, which states that Mr. Luther best receiv'd his last dispatches from hence on Friday morning, that he immediately saw Mont^e de Vergennes, who took Lord the King's commands upon the -dref whole of the articles the same night, were and that in consequence every thing receiv was agreed on Saturday morning, De V before this letter came away, and throu were certainly to be sign'd on Sa-aturday evening or at the farthest early on Sunday. Your Lord Grantham, as it is not ad-dressed to himself, but he is as sure of the fact, as if he had received it from the hand of Mont-De Vergennes. I have therefore thought it my duty to acquaint Your Majesty, and I beg leave most humbly to congratulate Your Majesty and the Queen upon the completion of this great event.

I understood from Mont-de Rayneval yesterday, that Negapatnam would occasion no difficulty.

I have the honour to be with the highest Respect

Your Majesty's
