The matters to be considered as stated by Lord Thoppel seem to forbid any delay beyond this evening. Mr Torrusehead at the same time presumed to inclose to taining two from Sir Thomas Pyle, & likewise one which he has just received from Mrs Oswald.

I should have thought Gen. Conway, Mr. Pitt, and Mr. Sec. Townshend so material persons at the deliberation Mr. Sheppel wishes to have held, that I am certain if he knew they are not likely to be present at a meeting this evening, that he will wish to have it postponed to tomorrow; but if the business will not afford that short delay, I authorize Mr. Sec. Townshend's sending summonses for this evening
