Louisbourg October 27th 1761

Sir

I think it my duty to offer Your Majesty my most humble Congratulations on the signature of the Peace, which I have this moment been apprized of. I trust that this fortunate event will enable Your Majesty to pass a quiet winter and will ensure to Great Britain as well as to the Continent many Years of happiness and plenty to make up for the last wretched Years we have passed. I rejoice most sincerely at the prospect of comfort Your Majesty will enjoy now that You are freed from constant uneasiness, You will take double pleasure in Your Farms at Wandor and Your Buildings at New which I hope will many Years prove an amusement to Your Majesty's leisure hours.

To my great regret I am to leave this place on Monday for five Months, as the inhabitants of Stuttgart are very anxious that the Duke should spend some time amongst them. Every body assures me that this a necessary step to keep all parties in good humour. I intend however frequently to visit my Garden and watch the plantings.

AA

I will now take up no more of Your Majesty's time and remain with great respect

Your Majesty's
Most dutiful Daughter and devoted Subject Charlotte
