Sir

I am very happy to have it in my power to write to Your Majesty by Mr Billow who has been so good as to spend two days here, and who will give Your Majesty some account of this place, though to my great vexation he has not been to Louisbourg which is infinitely more interesting, and from being my favourite residence I am sure that it would give Your Majesty more pleasure to have a description of it. I am constantly going on with my Garden though I fear it will never be tolerable unless some favourable opportunity offers to purchase more ground. The House though very plain is pretty and I generally even in the Winter spend a day there every week.

It would be very difficult for me to describe to Your Majesty the Joy I felt at hearing such good accounts of Your Health from Mr. Cullers. One cannot have been so long parted from ones family as I have been to feel the delight of conversing comfortably about them. Every little thing regarding those one is dutifully attached to as interesting, and I believe the Cullers's must have been fatigued with my eternal questions. — Your Majesty's alterations at Windsor Castle must quite restore it to its ancient Gothic beauty and the new building at New be Lubworth Castle improved. I hope that

Your Majesty will allow me to draw You some Chairs with a Pen or Velvet to be placed in this new Palace, and that You will be so gracious as to decide whether they shall be flowers or Landscapes

The Duke desires me to present his humble duty to Your Majesty and I remain with great Respect

Your Majesty's
Most dutiful Daughter and devoted Subject
