Sir

Ever happy to have an opportunity of recalling myself to Your Majesty I take the liberty of writing a few lines by Doctor Ulloperger the first Lutheran Clergyman at Augobourg who I believe has the honour of being known by name to Your Majesty, he is a very learned Man and was a great friend of the late Bishop of Oxford Butler. At present seventy five Years of age he undertakes this long Journey in order to sell his Library and Valuable Manuscripts to the Society for the propagation of the Gospel and flatters himself to succeed as he is acquainted with many of the Members and that the whole object of his own works is the propagation of the Gospel.

We are very unhappy in our Weather as the constant Rain prevents our enjoying the Gardens but I am so fond of being here that I prefer the being confined at home here to the going out at Stuttgart and comfort myself with the thoughts that this weather is a blessing to the Country

The Duke begs me to present his humble duty to Your Majesty and I remain with great Respect

Your Majesty's
Most dutiful Daughter and devoted Subject Charlotte Augusta Matilda

Duchess of Hamilton
