Sir.

I cannot let you leave this place without returning you thanks for the polite attentions you shewed me during your stay here and beg that you will renew to the Prince Regent the Queen and my Sisters the assurances of my affectionate attachment for them all.

I enclose the paper we talked of last night and that you will give the Prince at a proper moment and hope that he will read it with attention and see in it my desire to see him and his Daughter happy.

I have wrote a long Letter to Mr Price and now thinking it unnecessary to see up more of your time am with regard Sir

Your friend

Chevitotte

I hope that you will have a pleasant
Journey and arrive safely in England.
