The Prince Regent

Stuttgart February 5th 1814

My dearest Brother

I should do injustice to my feelings if I did not try to express to you my gratitude for the handsome kind and polite Letter; you have dear Brother authorized Lord Castlereagh to write in answer to Count Zeppelin. Looking on this as a fresh proof of your affection I beg that you will be convinced that I am highly flattered, and am sure dear Brother that it would give you satisfaction to see the pleasure I felt when the King imparted to me the contents of this Letter. The King is now looking out for a Gentleman that he intends to appoint as Minister at Your Court, by him I shall trouble you with a long Letter and therefore for the present will take my leave, only adding the King's Compliments and remain with the sincerest Affection

My dearest Brother

Your most Affectionate
Sister and devoted Friend

Charlotte
