My dearest Brother

It would be doing great injustice to my Heart were I silent on a day which is so justly dear to all the family and particularly so to one who is most sincerely attached to you. Much do I regret that circumstances do not allow of my writing with the rest of my Sisters to offer you dear Brother my congratulations in person, but that being impossible, I hope you will accept of my Compliments on the occasion and be convinced of the warm and sincere wishes I form that you may during a long series of years enjoy health, happiness and every earthly bleping — The King desires me to present his Compliments to you.

I trust my dearest Brother that by this time your mind is at ease concerning Charlotte, and that after the great kindness you have shown her, she will seek by her dutiful conduct to prove that she regrets having offended you, and will endeavour by every means in her power to regain your Affection and Confidence. I am sorry to hear that she has met with an unpleasant accident on her knee but hope that Sea bathing will quite get the better of every complaint.

I will now my dearest Brother take up no more of your time but remain 51779

with the sincerest Affection

Your most Affectionate
Sister and Friend

Charlotte
