My dearest Brother

It is with a very grateful Heart I take up my Pen, to express my sincere thanks for your very great kindness in having commissioned dearest Augusta to invite me to spend some months in England. Words cannot do justice to my feelings on receiving your affectionate Message, and I am still so overcome by this proof of your love, and recollection, that I fear I shall hardly do justice to the sentiments which reign in my Heart.

It is with the greatest gratitude that I accept of your most kind invitation my dearest Brother, and if possible hope in June to have the happiness and joy of seeing you again. — I am only afraid that you will be rather hurt my dear Brother at any appearances as I am very old of my age and infirm owing to the Gout in my Hands and Feet and a constant shortness of Breath. However I am convinced that I shall be the better for spending some time with you and the rest of my beloved Family. If you will have the goodness to look on me as an old woman, whose strength does not allow of her doing any things, which would otherwise be agreeable to her.

I have just been interrupted by a visit from my Son the King of Württemberg, to whom I have mentioned your kind wish to see me again, and he in the most affectionate manner pressed me to accept of your invitation.

I will now take up no more of your time, but will soon drive to Stuttgart and after having spoken to Dr Jäger, form the plan for my Journey which I will take the liberty to communicate to you as soon as it is arranged

I am happy to hear Dearest Brother that your health is improved since you bathed at Brighton. God grants that it may continue so and that I may find you well when we meet.

I remain with sincere love friendship and respect
