My dearest Brother

The world is every where the same & may be better in England then any where else tho' Mr Chatham has totally ruin'd his name with all his former friends, my story of P.
Ferdinand is without foundation but if she can get a husband you may be sure she will for she was very near marrying P. Frederick of Bevern. but that the Duke would not give her a sonner as he don't like his family should marry countess of the Prince <sup>was in the room</sup> I am sure would desire me to present his duty - may I say tho' he is my husband that I never knew any body with a more real good heart you know he is sensible & clever in short he is monstrously fond of Hered. Princess of Brunswick me & I am a happy woman. I ever
