Aristarchus

From most authentic advices, Aristarchus learns that the Spaniards at this moment are giving fresh orders for augmenting their Sea & Land forces not only in Europe, but in America & the West-Indias.

Lord George Gordon having notified to his Employers, that he was at a dead stand for want of the necessary Viaticum, hath within this last fortnight received a remittance from France to the full amount of Six thousand Louis-d'Ors. The King's Ministers by their banking Connections may easily trace this remittance to its fountain's head.
