

Hered. Princess of Brunswick

51988-9

Sir

The P. has charged ^{me} to present his humble duty to you for the honor of you did him to answer his so graciously. & also for the plate that is to come for augusta, we did not expect it, but thought that the diamonds that came had been intended for her & that as she could not wear them I had them in interim.

we are now every day employ'd in going to the fair in the morning where if one had millions one could spend them, there is to thousand marchands at least that come regularly every fair, but in revenge we are oblig'd to make our provision which must last till the fair comes round again, the coffee is better here than with us

Hered.

28817

5198

him with Key.
he say
Jem

& the Chocolate, but the Tea is a bominable. so that I dont hurt my ~~nerve~~ nerves with drinking it. I hope its not true that you have been ill as no body has wrote me word of it, but its reported here so, I ever am my dear brother

your Majestys most dutiful subject & sister

Augusta

Mrs of Theories

1765

Count Galoufking is in the King of Prussia service, he has the honor of being director of the K. pleasures. he is very cleaver & has ~~the~~ been at Potsdame. that the K. might know

Hered. Princess of Brunswick

51989

him letter. he has beg'd of the Prince to interced with your Majesty that he might keep your Key. the P. dose not know if its customery so he has charged me to find out. all I can say for him is that he is no dishonest to the Genwife

5188

Faint, mostly illegible cursive handwriting at the top of the page.

Faint cursive handwriting on the right side of the page.

To
The King

Faint, mostly illegible cursive handwriting at the bottom of the page.

8
February 1765