

Duchess of Brunswick

My dear Brother

had The fairies over we have the Duke of Braganca a fortnight here he is really a very worth man & vast by a musing Lord Boston can tell you in what a round of amusement we live, he was vastly pleased with all the good rep that the Duke & Dutchess had for him, & he is quite charmed with the margrave foot, but he thinks her an angle from head to foot & vastly cleaver, he has promised to make an other visit, the King of Denmark never spoke to him & I find that he is very wild with the lowest creatures we are going into the country fell the bad weather comes, you have over joyed all our family by your gracious letter to the Prince who is the first to feel the obligation we have to you, but however things may turn out whether absent or present my duty, my affection & faithful attachment to your Majesty will make me consider my own particular satisfaction but in the second place & if it please God to continue to keep me in the health & the affection of my friends nothing can hurt me I am with the sincerest affection & most respectfull tender regard your Majestys most dutiful subject & sister
