

Duchess of Brunswick

10th October 1770

52022

My dearest brother

Magel has been vastly pleased with your goodness this place is charming & the people very agreeable. I do not know how long we stay here if William was returned it would be very short the King of Prussia has beg'd to have Leopold but the Duke has refused. It may beg of you to lay me at the Queen's feet & tell her that the more I see of the world & the happier I am that she is in England for none of the goddesses would have done for you I ever am
my dearest brother

your most dutiful
subject & sister
Augusta

Lytha. 10th
of Oct 1770

1811
The first of the series of letters written by the Queen to the Prince of Wales in 1811. The letters were written in cursive and were very beautiful.
The first letter
was written on the 1st of January 1811.
The letters were written in cursive and were very
beautiful.
The first letter
was written on the 1st of January 1811.