My dearest brother

If I might advise you about health it would be that he should keep at an distance for the present, but have your orders that if the Queen was in the least difficulty, she to come forward & take her part I am very impetuous but my affection for her pleads I hope & my excuse with one that knows so well the affection one has for a sister that is ready to be pitied. I am am my dearest brother your most dutiful

Subject & Sister
Augusta
