

Hered. Princess of Brunswick

52025

Bronsvic 7th of May 1771

My dearest brother

The King of Sweden told me he had wrote to you & beg'd of me that I should try to get Sir John Goodrich changed which I told him I durst not name to you as his ministers ought to speak if he had done any thing to displease him he said he could give his ministers no orders without the Senate's joining with him which made it impossible for him to act but in a secret he is wost then he was & so full of all the Politicks & beauties corporal & spiritual of Paris that I had no patience with him, the King of Prussia to my grate joye would

not admit his Chamberlains at his Table which he said when he thought to come to Berlin as Prince he should expect as Prince Henry had dined with the Queen of Sweden, on his return from Paris he had heard some Honors of his Uncle not much to his honor which with this ^{al} person want of breeding to himself will create no real friendship, I am charmed with your choice of D. Holdernep & vastly happy that the publick aprove of those you have plac'd about your sons I hope every thing will succeed to your wishes which is the wish of her that ever is your most dutiful subject & sister
