Last Post my dearest brother I had the Honor of a letter from your Majesty, the Duke & Duchess of York are much in love with each other, I hope it will be a happy Union, and that they will both make it the Business of their lives to be a comfort and a Blessing to you & the Queen if we judge by the conduct of the present Princess of Orange we have reason to flatter ourselves that the Duchess of York will be a good wife, and be a good example to the young married women, the Duke desires me to offer his most respectful Duty and I ever am my dearest brother with the most sincere Gratitude your Majestys most dutiful & obedient humble Servant & Subject

Handwritten text on a piece of paper pasted onto a larger sheet. The text is written in cursive and is mostly illegible due to fading and blurring. It appears to be a letter or a note, possibly containing names and dates. Some faint words like "my dear" and "I hope" are visible. The paper is aged and has some staining.
