

H. H. to Ed. Shelburne

5218

Queen's House Feb. 14th 1743.
on Feb. 5 P.M.

The disappointment at the very small Majority this Morning in the House of Peers made me omit desiring Ed. Shelburne to acquaint the Ad. Chancellor that I shall be ready tomorrow at two to receive the House of Lords; an answer must be prepared to that Address.

On looking again at Mr. Townshend's note & find Ad. John Cavendish's amendment was carried, which is an event I had not understood when I wrote this Morning.

at the appointment of the very well distinguished in the place of the deceased and his wife to represent the said deceased in the
at the residence of the deceased in the proposed to that effect.
The said deceased was born in the
at the residence of the deceased in the not understood that I must be wrong.