

Duchess of Brunswick
June 14th 1811.

52271 Sir

Wishing to find the proper terms to acknowledge to your Royal Highness my thanks for having continue the pension that the King had so graciously granted to my two Sons, I hope that I have taken the right method, for if not according to Etiquette forgive my ignorance, as certainly my intention can be but to show my respect and attachment to your Royal Highness, being

Sir
your Royal Highness

most humble servant

June 14th

1811

Augusta

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a rectangular piece of paper pasted onto the left side of the page. The text is mirrored, suggesting bleed-through from the reverse side.]