b. 1806. s. 1873. d. 1884.

Sir,

The celebration of so happy an event as the birth of Your Royal Highness inspires me with the most heartfelt joy. Many marks of Your Royal Highness's paternal kindness are present to my mind

Prince William of Brunswick

15. April 1819

and among them the most recent, the present of a precious horse which will render to me the amusing lessons of riding still more agreeable. May all sorts of prosperity be granted by providence to Your Royal Highness and may this day very often return to the highest satisfaction of Your Royal Highness
