Friedrichsborg Dec<sup>r</sup> 24th 1769.

Sir

I hope You will excuse my not having answered sooner Your last letter, for which I sincerely thank You, I have been ill for a long time, and at last obliged to keep my Bed; but I am now much better. The 20th we are to go to town for the Winter, which I am very glad of as the weather is very bad. The King desires his compliments, Permit me to make mine to the Queen, and believe me to be with the greatest respect Your most affectionate Sister Caroline Mathilda.
