Dear Brother,

my Sister, and her Prince, who arrived here last Saturday, have left me this morning at five o'clock, she is quite the same as formerly, in very good humour, at least as much as it is possible to be in my company. I asked her if she knew any ladies that she could recommend to be about me, she knew of none, but she thought I should do well to see them before they were engaged to come about me. Madame de Werup has told me that You have given orders that I should often hear from my Children, I thank You very much for it, and hope You will believe that I am Your most affectionate Sister
Caroline M.

Dear Mother

I received your letter of the 10th and was glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same.
I have not much news to write at present.
The weather here is very warm and pleasant. I have been out for a walk every day and enjoy it very much.
I have not seen any of the children yet. I hope they are all well.
