Dear Brother

I suppose You are already informed of the changes that have happened at Copenhagen, Brantran who has always said he would never take a pension, is quitting the Kings service, with an annual allowance of 2000 R.D. he was the very man that made such a noise as Bernstorff received 6000. You mention in Your last letter my Sister behaving in my unhappy affair, I can assure You she has showed me ~~a~~ an infinite deal of friendship in the short time she was here, I wish she could have made a longer stay here, as yet I have had no news from my Children since I am at the Goerde, I am every post day in hopes of receiving some, I am Dear Sir, Your most affectionate

Sister

Handwritten text on a piece of lined paper, possibly a letter or document, with some words and numbers visible. The text is written in cursive and is mostly illegible due to fading and the angle of the page. Some discernible words include "Dear Sir" and "I have been". There are also some numbers like "1000" and "100" visible. The paper is mounted on a larger sheet of paper.
