Dear Brother,

I wish to know who You would think proper for me to accept Belle, if the nobility should only come to Court, or if those of the High Tribunal should likewise have leave, as they have often asked me here about it, I thought it was better to write to You, than to do any thing that might be disagreeable to You. I hope You will excuse my troubling You with so many trifling questions. I am Dear Sir, Your most toth affectionate

Gode Sept 16
1772.

Sister

Caroline Mathilde.
