

George R.

Trusty and welbelov'd We greet you well, and hereby signify that after mature Consideration of the severall Assignments of Arms & Coronets formerly made by Our Royal Father unto our most Dear and most entirely Belov'd Children Prince William, and unto the Princesses Anne, Amelia-Sophia-Eleanor, and Elizabeth-Carolina, We have thought fit, and do hereby declare, ordain, & command that Prince William shall for the future use and bear, in his Arms formerly granted, a Labell of three Points Argent only, having on the middle, St. George's Croesse, to be born under the Coronet appointed for the Immediate Sons of the Crown by a Warrant bearing date on the nineteenth day of February in the thirteenth year of the Reign of Our Royal Predecessor King Charles the Second, with the like Coronet upon the Head of the Right, and about the Neck of the Left, Supporter.

That our said three Eldest Daughters, and also Our other Royal Daughters the Princesses Mary and Louisa shall each of them for the future use and bear a Coronet of the same Fashion with the Immediate Sons of the Crown, composed of Crosses and Fleurs de Lis's without Arches, which Coronets shall as well be worn, adorned with Jewells upon all proper Occasions, as be placed upon their respective Coat Arms, which We hereby ordain shall be born in the following manner:

That our Eldest Daughter, the Princess Royal, Anne shall bear Our Royal Arms without the Inescutcheon of Charlemagne's Crown, the Badge of the Arch-Treasurer of the Holy Roman Empire, with a Labell of three Points Argent, each charged with St. George's Croesse.

That our Second Royal Daughter the Princess Amelia-Sophia-Eleanor shall bear the same Arms with a Labell of three Points Ermine.

That our third Royal Daughter Elizabeth-Carolina shall bear the same Arms with a Labell of three Points Argent, each charged with

with a Rose Gules.

That our fourth Royal Daughter the Princess Mary shall use the same Arms with a Labell of three Points Argent, each charged with a Canton Gules.

That our fifth Royal Daughter the Princess Louisa shall bear the same Arms with a Labell of three Points Argent, each charged with a Torteaux.

And that these respective Distinctions above-recited of Coronets and Labells be placed in the Supporters of each of them respectively, And the same be used in the Crest of our said Royal Son Prince William.

And We hereby require, authorize, and command You and your Successors respectively to order, marshal, and set up on all Occasions the said Arms, Coronets and Supporters, according to the Law and Practice of Arms, and to cause this Our Warrant (with Your Exemplification of the said respective Arms) to be entered in Our College of Arms, where of you are not to fail, for which this shall be your sufficient Warrant: Given at our Court at Richmond this thirtieth day of August in the first Year of Our Reign.
