Prince of Wales to the Duke of Somerset.Ken. Sept. the 15th 1737

My Lord

After all the proofs of Friendship I have receiv'd of you, I think my-self highly justified in sending to you a short account of all that is pass'd relating to the Kings displeasure with me. I hope my conduct will meet with an approbation so valuab<sup>l</sup>e as yours. You will at all times find a sincere Friend in Frederick L.

matter his Relentments, came up to the Duke of Somerset, and gave him very injurious Language, supposing that he had made contrary to his Highness's Inclinations
