54047 Prince of Wales to the Duke of Somerset.

London the 31. May.
1738.

My Lord

You dont want any excuses for writing to me, the pleasure it gives me, carrys always the excuse along. If any thing could add to my present happiness, it would be the share you take in my Joy. God has blessed me greatly, in the Princess and my Children, which I am sure, you My Lord will agree with me in, is the greatest comfort & this world can afford. Judge Denton on has not quitted yet, tho' most part of the World believes he'll do it; M<sup>r</sup> Boole, amongst others has been recommended to me, in case the Vacancy happen'd, but your recommendation of him, has confirm'd the good Opinion I had of him, and determin'd me entirely. I wish my Lord a continuance of health to you

Charles Seymour, 6th
Duke of Somerset
