

54067
 For Mr. Boyle

To believe that there is certain intelligence that the Dissolution of ye Parliament is strongly debated, To tell it L<sup>d</sup>. Carlisle and Dr. Lee this Fryday afternoon or as soon as possible, since I am out of Town till to Morrow Saturday Evening.

Tho' I have not believed it till last Night, I now am of that Opinion. At least that many several of ye Ministers are for it.

L<sup>d</sup>. Bath, whom I met last Night at Kenelagh, has offered very obligingly to bring in any body or write for, any body, I recommended at Heydon in the room of Admiral

Arson, to be made a Peer, which must be done as privately as possible.

If you know a good, strong, money'd
Man that will risk it (or if L<sup>d</sup>.
Carlisle do) propose him on Sunday morning to me, at half an hour
past Eleven, at Leic<sup>r</sup>. House, talk o'er with L<sup>d</sup>. Carl. Scarf and H<sup>on</sup>. and if it would not be convenient to send for Scarf. from Scarf.

This are in haste the thoughts
of Y<sup>r</sup>. good friend
L<sup>d</sup>.

Prince of Wales
 of Wales

Arson, to be made a Peer, which must be done as privately as possible.

If you know a good, strong, money'd
 Man that will risk it (or if L<sup>d</sup>.
 Carlisle do) propose him on Sunday
 morning to me, at half an hour
 past Eleven, at Leic<sup>r</sup>. House,
 Talk o'er with L<sup>d</sup>. Carl. Scarb<sup>o</sup>
 and H<sup>on</sup>. and if it would not be prudent to send for Scarb<sup>o</sup>. from Scarb<sup>o</sup>.

This are in haste the thoughts
 of Y<sup>r</sup>. good friend
 J.P.