Mr Fox. affiliated with the Whigs

I fear you will be under some Disappointment with a Messenger from me; with no better Intelligence, than that the People in Yorkshire are all stark staring mad about Elections: a meeting was held on Saturday the 29th by yr Lds Malton, Kildemul, Wain, Tharstonbridge Galloway, a few Gentlemen
 - 65^o attorneys & 30 ~~Whigs~~ Whigs, they fixed on Turner for their Representative, he has as yet not declared he will stand, but they make use of his name, & I believe it will be the greatest Contest, that ever was known in this County - To Day at another General meeting of the Hearty York^r men: viz the most part of the West Riding
 - Mr Foxe was Nominated their Candidate; after what I have said I need not remind you how material a point it is for yr Lds friend not only to declare, himself, but also to command his Agents to be active; I shall take care to have him apply'd too as soon as possible. but Mr Hos is now at York & when he will come home I can't tell to a Day - it will Honour the Cause as much the favour of yr friend; but yr is another material interest w^{ch} sh^d be taken care of & none knows how to manage, having no authority from the owner to act; w^{ch} is my L^d Fearno's; you know he is in France, & a Day scarce - sh^d slip without securing all we can; I leave it to yr Judgment whether it is proper to apply to yr Royal Matter; for his authority to secure it, & if you think it a proper application, must desire you to be the Person to make ^{it} - as who so proper as the Chancellor - but you know as a Cornish Bor - was once named you must take this hint. that Mr. Hoar, has been forc'd into this affair by the Gentlemen of the Country, & accepted it rather than let the service of it fall to Nothing—his health being Bad—therefore leave you to act as you think is proper, for I can't pretend to judge further—then that whatever is done — must be done immediately— I send you a Blind man upon a Lean Horse, I wish he may find his way to you, but it is the best man I could catch, for no time must be lost in any thing— viz there is a subscription in the same manner as ^{was} for St Miles Stapleton—I write in great haste & hurry, so am afraid you will find many mistakes: w^{ch} I hope y^r will excuse as it is from a Lady, who is never accustomed to write correct but am y^r
