

54090 S^r P^B.Dear S^r

16 Febr 1747.

In obedience to your Comand I have alter'd the Lines you was pleas'd to honor me with.
 Whether for the better or the worse is submitted to your more exquisite Taste. Be my Trals what it will as to the Poehy. Yet I flatter myself that I have had the good fortune to get a Wroughthead'd Foot right as to the Subject Matter of his Song.

This S^r is but the beginning of my Correspondance with One the most Promising of his Age.
 The great Honor Pleasure and growing Hopes from such a Correspondent fix my Ambition & Desire invariably to Cultivate & Continue it.
 And give me leave S^r to say I shall be glad of every Opportunity of showing how much
 I am & Desire to be esteem'd

Your most faithfull & most Obedient humble Servant

Ye Lawyers to ^{true} just
 Be the Cause what it will Do most
 Who so barudly plead
 Forst each Que his due
 How worthy of Trust!
 You know black from white
 Got ^{adhere to the} ~~prefer wrong to~~ right
 How soe'er ye are food
 As ye chance to be food.

I have barud
 Leave Musty Reports
 And ~~for sake~~ ^{attend} the Kings Courts
 Where Justice & Concord ^{through} Whore Dullness & Difcord have stuythor
 Read Salkeld & Coutris
 And all the good
 With all their damnd' Lurys
 And ^{stick to good} ~~away to the~~ Carst and a Bumper Square Towns.
