

The Duke of Gloucester
Suffered November 22
December . 1765

[Dec. 7 1765]

54297

Sir,

I do not know in what manner to express my gratitude to your Majesty, for your many favours conferred upon me: I have this instant received a letter from you, with a fresh mark of your goodness. I wish it may ever be in my power to convince you of my desire of ever doing what may be agreeable to you. I shall make my poor Friend immensely happy by a letter to morrow. I hope the letter I shall send y^r Majesty, ^{from} Petersburg to me, will be satisfactory. I am Sir

Carlton House
25th past 6th clock P.M.
Your most Dutiful
Subject & Brother
William.

1830

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]