

8th May 1772.

Prince William Henry

54332

Sir,

I had the honor of receiving your Majesty's letter of the 27th of April yesterday upon my arrival here; I fear I shall miss M^r Duval as he was to go to Paris, and as I believe he could scarce have arrived there before the 4th. I mean to leave this place in an hour's time, for I feel too anxious to return home to loose any unnecessary moments upon the road. I hope about the 20- or 21st to have the honor to thank both your Majesties in person for your goodness to me, and to assure you that I am your most Dutiful Subject, and Brother

Lyons

May 8th - 1772

William Henry

