

Duke of Gloucester
October 21 1786

54380

Sir,

I take the liberty to inform your Majesty that I propose passing this Winter between Rome and Naples. I leave this place for Turin the 26th of the month. I have had so many marks of attention from the King of Sardinia, that I feel that I have been hitherto wanting in not having been at Turin before the Prince of Piedmont having particularly proposed me this Summer. The Arch-Duke Ferdinand & the Arch-Duchess Sophie, the highest Gratitude and satisfaction, for the manner your Majesty has received them.

Have the honour to remain
Your Majesty's Dutiful Subject and Brother
