Sir,

I had the honour of receiving of our Majesty's Most Gracious Answer last Wednesday. I cannot sufficiently express to Your Majesty, the grateful feelings I have for the Great and Noble part You have taken, upon this late Occasion; it shall be my study to deserve Your Goodness to me, in having given such a mark of Protection to my Children and Approbation of my plan, for their future Education. The Gracious promise of granting me an additional Irish Pension to defray their Expences, is what I had not the least Idea of or even wish when I made my Application to Your Majesty. This fresh Generous mark of your goodness to me I can never forget. I think it my Duty to return to England this Autumn, to thank Your Majesty in Person, and to place my Son immediately at Cambridge. Mr. Vincent corroborates, all the advantageous things Your Majesty has heard of Miss Dee, and I have the greatest hopes of Success from Her acceptance.

Give me leave Sir, to congratulate you, upon the return of the Duke of York, his Universal Approbation upon the Continent, must give your Majesty great Joy.

May I presume to desire Your Majesty to present my grateful Thanks to the Queen for her Inquiries after my health.
