

The Duke of Gloucester

1st July 1790

54394

Sir,

I have had an Application from M. General Gault to mention his Name to Your Majesty, upon the Death of M. General Doy; his Ambition is to succeed to the Deputy Quarter Master Generalship. As My Lieutenant Colonel, I can <sup>not</sup> help putting his Request before Your Majesty.

I mean to go to Cambridge on Monday to be present at My Son's taking his Degree, and on Wednesday, he leaves the University; and after ten days, I shall place him at Wyndhurst.

I have the Honour

I remain

Your Majesty's Dutiful Subject
