

His Highness Duke of Gloucester,

17. Sept. 1792.

Sep. 17

54403

Sir,

I had Yesterday a very long Conversation with Mr Henry Clinton, who has been four days with the Duke of Brunswick. If Your Majesty would allow Mr Henry to come to Maymouth, as by chance, I believe He could give You some very particular Informations has the Duke was very confidential with Him, and allowed ^{him} to open himself to me upon those Subjects. I understand Thionville is taken, Mr Henry saw M. General Harecourt at the Army.

I have the honour to remain

Sept^r 17th 1792

Your Majesty's Obedient Subject, Brother
William Henry

