

D. of Gloucester
Gloucester House Nov. 17. 1796.

AA

54414

Sir

I shall in obedience to your Majesty's commands write on Tuesday next to the Hereditary Prince of Wirtemberg, to explain to him the reason why at this moment his coming over to England, would be every way awkward, and inconvenient. I shall desire the Duchess of Brunswick to enter fully into the objections, and in case she does not respect him at Brunswick desire Her to send him a letter and mine.

I have the honour

To be your Majesty's Dutiful Subject and Brother

William Henry

Gloucester House
Nov. 17. 1796

[Faint, illegible text]

The image shows a large, rectangular area containing a faint grid or ledger. The grid consists of approximately 10 columns and 15 rows. The lines are very light and the text within the cells is illegible. The overall appearance is that of a scanned document where the original content has faded significantly.