

Mr Dundas

7th March 1787

6236

+ India office 7th March. 1787

Mr Dundas humbly takes the Liberty of Submitting to His Majesty's Pencil some Private and Confidential Letters he received last night by a Packet just arrived from India.

If after perusing them His Majesty wishes to be furnished with Copies of all or any part of them, He will be pleased to lay his Com:

Commands on Mr Jundas for that Purpose.

one of the Letters is from Mr Foster, some of whose Writings Mr Jundas formerly took the Liberty of submitting to His Majestys Perusal.