

1st May 1765.
Lord Halifax—

For

The King

65

Lord Sandwich's
Wednesday Evening
May 31, 1765

Lord Halifax dutifully begs leave to acquaint his Majesty that the House of Lords did not rise till past six o'Clock. Nothing either remarkable, or entertaining past in of Debate, and the arguments were on either side much the same as were made use of yesterday.
The Speakers were as follows; those who were for Lord Lyttelton's Motion are marked For, those who opposed it against.

Lord Lyttelton — For Lord Rotchurst — against Lord Mansfield — against Duke of Richmond — against Lord Bentinck — against Lord Pompet — against Lord Shelburne — For Duke of Grafton — For Lord Talbot — against Lord Lubbock — against

Duke of Newcastle — For Duke of Bedford — against Lord Ravensworth — against Lord Egmont — against Lord Dartmouth — For Lord Hillsborough — against

Lord Temple, the Duke of Bolton, Lord Finnere, & some other Opposition Lords were absent; and from what I report from several Lords, and by a general Disposition of the House, Lord Halifax believes the Bill will pass thro' of Committee without any opposition tomorrow, & probably without any at the Third Reading.
