

To take an Inventory & valuation of all the late Prince's Effects both real & personal.
The Appraisement of the respective Effects to be made by Persons of Reputation & Skill in the different Effects they Appraise.

To distinguish the Nature of the real Estates which are Freehold Copyhold & Leasehold & to what Incumbrances they are subject.

To get an Account of his Bond & simple Contract Debts.

To get a copy of the Provs given by his late Royal Highness to the Jewell Office for 4000<sup>00</sup> of plate delivered by the Office to his Royal Highness.

To let an account of a collection of the late King's letters and papers the appointment of the respective to be made by the Secretary of State in the different parts of the Kingdom

To determine the nature of the which should be printed & bound and what form should be subject.
To get an account of his late Majesty's papers.

To get a copy of the late King's letters and papers which he wrote after his death delivered by the Secretary of State

Faint, illegible handwritten text on the left side of the page.

Queen's
Memorandum
Some relating to the Cavaliers