

74082

Allowances given to the Clerk of the Kitchen before the 400.^l was given in lieu of Diet Fees &c.

To 1 bott: Wine p ^r day $\frac{3}{9}$ ^d	60	10	0
Beer D ^o 1 ga.	6	1	0
Ale 1 bott D ^o	6	1	0
Bread 1 Loaf D ^o	4	11	3
Mutton of one day viz 103 days	21	7	0
of Veal the other . . . 102 days	40	19	0
Coals $\frac{1}{2}$ Chaldron p ^r month at 33.	9	10	0
Candles 1 ^l Winter of: $\frac{1}{2}$ Summer	0	0	1 $\frac{1}{2}$
	£	165	0 0

Besides the above, I had Lodgings, Dressing my Diet, and all necessarys to my Table, & Linen also Fees in the Larder viz; Scraggs of the necks of Mutton, with Suit, D^o of Veal, & Kinucles from the legs & Shoulders.

Poultry feathers, Gibletts, fat Livers & Pinnions Spicery, &c from each pound.

These allowances did not fall short of 400.^l in lieu of them, & was the least that any Clerk of y^e Kitchen had before me. for they had other advantages, to make amends for the trouble that attended their business. Powell served the white Wines. & those of the Kings Kitchen have other posts given them.

N. B. 'Tis no easy matter to mannage the Kitchen, and to do every thing for Her Royal Highnesses Service,

