

M^r. Sec^y. Dundas
Parl. Street Nov^r. 2^d. 1797. $\frac{4}{11}$ A.M.

8649

Parl. Street. 2^d Nov^r. 1797 $\frac{4}{11}$ A.M.

Mr Dundas humbly submits to His Majesty's consideration on the draft of a letter proposed to be sent from His Majesty to the Nabob of Arcot. If the draft is approved of the letter is sent for His Majesty's signature.

Mr Pitt
Downing Street Nov. 2 1797

8650

x
Mr Pitt humbly begs leave to acquaint Your Majesty that the Address was moved to Day by Mr Booth and seconded by Mr Drummond, and after a few Observations very little relevant to the Subject from Mr Bryan Edwards and Mr Nicoll, and strong Declarations of Support to the Address from Mr Wilberforce, Sir Thomas Mann Mr Elford, Mr Hawkins Brown and

Sir W. Young, was unanimously agreed to Joining them.

Thursday. Nov^r 2^d 1/2 p^m of 1797

Duke of Portland

Nov. 2 1797

8651 - 2

The Duke of Portland most humbly begs permission to implore Your Majesty's pardon for the neglect of which he has the mortification of having been guilty in not having taken care to see that a fair copy of Your Majesty's speech was transcribed for Your Majesty & sent to Your Majesty in due time. The Duke of Portland has only to submit to Your Majesty

Majesty in expiation of his crime, that it was his belief that when the speech had received Your Majesty's sanction it was transcribed & the copy, for reading sent directly from the office to Your Majesty, without passing through his hands; that his attendance at a meeting of Your Majesty's servants at Lord Jenkinson's office at noon, where he remained till it was necessary to attend Your Majesty

Duke of Portland

Nov. 2 1797

8652 was his Majesty's

dear son about preparing meeting of the at room, and your Majesty

Majesty in the House of Lords, presented his Majesty's a fair copy of the speech had been prepared for your Majesty, & his Majesty the King which contained it, which had been sent & left at his House - under the supposition of his writing for it at home for the purpose of laying it himself at your Majesty's feet. The Duke of Portland is fully sensible of the weakness of this excuse, but he has expressly told your Majesty the whole truth, & submits himself himself to your Majesty's Candor & Liberality for forgiveness

Buckingham House

Thursday night

2^d Nov: 1797

Duke of Cornwall,
Buckingham House 2^d Nov: 1797

M^r. Sec^y. Dundas
Parl^t. Street Nov. 3. 1797. $\frac{1}{5}$ h. M.

8653

Parl^t. Street 3^d Nov. 1797 $\frac{1}{5}$ h. M.

x
Mr Dundas takes the liberty of transmitting to your Majesty for your Majesty's signature The proposed letter to the Sabot of Arcott with a draft of the words which it has been usual for your Majesty to prefix, with your Majesty's own hand to your Signature. Mr Dundas has caused it to be wrote over again upon a new vellum observing that the former was not so free from Spots as it ought on such an occasion.

Mr Pitt.

November 4 1797

8654

Youngs Street

Nov 4th 1797 1/4 PM.

Mr Pitt is just honored with your Majesty's gracious Commands. He will converse fully with Mr De Lee on the Subject, and afterwards with your Majesty's Permission, consult with Lord Grenville with respect to the Language which Mr De Lee may be desired to hold to the Duke of Brunswick. In the mean Time He cannot entertain a Doubt that a Jewish Letter from your Majesty, to the Effect stated in your Majesty's Note, will be the best Mode of giving its full Weight to any Communications now made, and that it will be particularly desirable, to obtain from the Duke of Brunswick as Your Majesty proposes, a Statement of the particular Suggestions which He may convey to the Prince of Prussia.

Duke of Portland

Nov. 7 1797

8655 - b

As the Duke of Portland has presumed to withhold three of the enclosures contained in the Lord Lieutenant's dispatch of the 3^d Instant he humbly conceives it to be his duty to inform Your Majesty that the enclosures he has kept back are the Reports of the Secret Committees of the two Houses of the Irish Parliament which have been already laid before Your Majesty, the Proceedings of the Court-Martial on the Prisoners of the Hungarian Militia which he also believes have been submitted to your Majesty, & the Report of the Trials of ^{of the} two Conspirators who intended to murder Lord Castlemain, who are not less infamous for their insolence than for the enormity of the crime of which they were guilty; but the absurdity of the two printed Papers called the British Star so far exceeds every thing that has yet made its appearance in print that all publications hitherto are indeed unworthy of the Indignation they have occasioned, & it is impossible not to feel as much concern at the excess to which Human Degeneracy has advanced as at the inadequacy of the punishment for a crime of so deep

Duke of Portland

Nov. 7 1797

8656

... been submitted
... persons who
... for them
... guilty; but
... so far
... that all
... it is
... Human
... a crime of so deep

& black a die. & it imports the Duke of Portland to add that the Irish Government has not yet found a clue to lead to the discovery of the authors & perpetrators of that frightful system of Iniquity

The Duke of Portland has directed a compilation to be made of the several papers referred to by the Lord Lieutenant in the Despatches which he specifies, which the Duke of Portland will lay with all humility at your Majesty's Feet as soon as it is completed

Buckingham House
Tuesday night 7th Nov^r 1797

Duke of Northland of Burlington House
7. Nov. 1799.

Mr. Dundas

8th Nov. 1797

8657

Wimbleton 8th Nov. 1797 ^{to} 9. P.M.

Mr Dundas thinks it his duty to transmit to your Majesty without delay the letter from Colonel Don which He has just received, in order that he may receive your Majesty's commands in what manner he should dispose of the Subject of it. In a matter so impor-diately connected with your Majesty's domestick feeling.

Mr Dandas does not wish to entertain any sentiment without your Majesty's previous communication.

H. H. to Duke of Brunswick - Draft

Nov. 10 1797

8658 - 9

Mon Cher Beaufrere et Cousin, J'ai entendu avec beaucoup d'intérêt le récit que le Sieur De Due m'a fait des conversations intéressantes que vous avez bien voulu ~~faire~~ ^{avoir} avec lui sur la situation critique de l'Europe et plus particulièrement de l'Allemagne, et de vos idées ^{sur} de la manière la plus efficace de remettre ce degré de confiance entre les grandes Cours ^{qui seul peut détourner} pour éviter le fléau qui pourrait ^{déprimé} troubler tous les Gouvernements de l'Europe. Mes sentiments sont si analogues aux vôtres, que j'ai cru qu'il étoit essentiel de persuader le Sieur De Due de retourner en Allemagne ^{pour} ~~de~~ vous témoigner mes sentiments sur cette crise, et de vous prier sans délai de me donner sur papier vos idées sur ce ^{important} sujet, intéressant de me les envoyer, et de prier le Prince Royal de Prusse, qui je me flatte possède les vues les plus loyales; mais de qui la jeunesse requiert un Mentor doué de talents ^{nécessaires} ~~et de la confiance~~ pour le guider ^{dans ces temps périlleux} ~~vers un avenir plus fortuné~~, et lui ^{faire bien voir} marquer le vrai mal qui ^{résulteroit de toute} ~~surviendrait~~ ^{d'immédiatement} d'aggraverement en Allemagne.

Je

A

Je regarde le soutien de l'intégrité de l'Allemagne comme la pierre fondamentale ^{dans tout plan} ~~de aucun système qui peut être~~ formé ^{pour} soutenir la Société contre les nouveaux principes que la République Française a établie; j'ai la confiance que je mets dans Vos sentiments et Vos Lumières, m'ont ^{me dis pensés d'entrer ici dans ~~de plus grandes explications~~ sur ce sujet,} ~~encouragé à vous en parler par la même que le sein~~ de lui détaillera avec détail, et cette tâche dont je suis convaincu capable. assurément je suis avec l'amitié la plus sincère &c.

St. James,
le 10^{me} Nov. 1797.

A. L. to Duke of Brunswick - Draft

Nov. 10 1797

8659

Il est certainement, si l'on ne forme pas bientôt un plan, forme dans cette vue, le mal qu'on voit déjà pourroit arriver à l'extrême.

magne comme ~~fait~~ venus principes

à confiance

ieres, mont

que le sein lancé doit

avec l'amitié

meurant

supplé du de

de

de

de

de

de

de

de

de

de

pour l'usage de la Bibliothèque
de la Cour de Brunswick

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

Brookline
de ma lettre au D. de Arden 11. Janvier 1710. au No. 1797

Brouillon
de ma lettre au R. de Prusse St. James ce 10^{me} Nov. 1797.

8660

Monsieur Mon Frere

Les nouvelles de la Santé du ~~plus~~ Roi Votre Pere. ayant rendu l'Evenement de sa Mort très probable, j'ai ordonné Mon Ministre le Baron de Steinberg de se rendre à Votre Cour le moment que cela arrivera pour Vous témoigner de la manière la plus énergique la part que j'e prend à un Evenement qui n'intéresse pas seulement Votre Majesté, mais que toute l'Europe et à plus forte raison toute l'Allemagne regarde avec impatience la ligne de conduite que Votre Majesté adoptera. Je suis très incliné à réserver les liens qui subsistent entre Votre Majesté, Moi, et une grande partie de l'Empire, cette Union est très nécessaire quand établie, et toute qui est arrivée de nouveau rend cette précaution plus nécessaire.

Je ne veut pas à cette occasion incommoder Votre Majesté d'une plus longue lettre, mais Vous assure que je serai toujours avec les sentiments les plus tendres

St. James
ce 10^{me} Nov. 1797.

Monsieur Mon Frere
De Votre Majesté
Le bon Frere

Q. R.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper]

Lord Grenville

Nov. 10 1797

8661

Cleveland Nov. 10. 1797.
11. P.M.

Lord Grenville has the honour to acknowledge the receipt of Your Majesty's commands. He had before appointed M. de Luc at twelve o'clock, and he has since seen him and settled every thing with him for his departure. Lord Grenville has the honour to transmit to Your Majesty in this box the memorandum for the Duke of Brunswick, which M. de Luc takes with him.

Charg: of Salisbury

13th Nov: 1797

8662

Belington Street
13 Nov: 1797

Sire

Having received the orders of the House of Lords to know when Your Majesty will be graciously pleas'd to receive their Address, I take the Liberty of humbly intreating that Your Majesty will design to give me the necessary Information.

I have the honor to be with the most profound Respect Sire

Your Majesty's
most dutiful
and loyal Subject

Salisbury

Mr Pitt
Downing Street Nov. 10th 1797

8663 - 4

Downing Street.

Friday Nov 10th 1797

8 P.M.

Mr Pitt humbly begs leave to acquaint Your Majesty, that on taking into Consider--tion the Ad. Res. from the Lords, an Amend-ment was proposed by Sir J. Sinclair, and seconded by Mr Bryan Edwards, which was of the Nature Mr Pitt had expected.

The Original Ad. Res. was supported by Lord Temple, Mr Pitt, Mr P. Allen,

Mr Martin, Mr Edwards of Rutlandshire Amherst, Mr Lloyd, Mr Tynemouth, Lord Cary, Mr Lawrence, and Mr Wilberforce. - The sense of the House appeared so decided and zealous in favor of the original address, that Sir John Sinclair withdrew his Amendment,

Mr Pitt
Downing Street Nov. 16th
1797

8664 after which the ad dress was agreed to Nemine Contradiente. - The Speech expressed by the whole House was in the highest degree satisfactory, and promises the most active exertion in every measure which the Public Safety may require. -

Blanchard
shill,
and of the zealous that Amendment,

Mr. Pitt
Downing Street House. 11

Duke of Portland

Nov. 12 1797

8665 - 6

As the Duke of Portland has the mortification to find himself obliged to renounce the hope of paying his Duty to Your Majesty tomorrow he most humbly begs leave to lay at Your Majesty's feet a copy which he has had expressly prepared for Your Majesty of the extracts of such parts of the Lord Lieutenant's Despatches as contain accounts of the disturbed state of Ireland previous to the uprising, the which was the result of the Reports of the Committees of Secrecy of both Houses

12 First Houses of Parliament of that Kingdom.

The Duke of Portland also requests Your Majesty's permission to offer to Your Majesty's consideration the humble request of Lord Bunsell for Your Majesty's licence to bear in chief as an augmentation to the Family Arms, the Arms of Corsica, by way of indication of the Reasons which he conceives to have induced Your Majesty to confer the honor of the Barony — The Duke of Portland is also by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to represent to Your Majesty that Sir Edward Crofton whom Your Majesty had most graciously conferred

Duke of Portland.

Nov. 12 1797

8666 to offer and trust for letter to the him of the shy to confer Portland is also to Your Majesty most graciously connected would to raise to the dignity of the Peerage of Great Britain did before Your Majesty's gracious intentions towards them had been carried into effect. The Lord Lieutenant is humbly of opinion that it would be of considerable advantage to Your Majesty's Service that Sir Edward Crofton's Family should not suffer by their misfortune but be admitted to the same Honours through the medium of their brother which they would have enjoyed had their Father lived to obtain the rank to which Your Majesty had ordered them to be raised & therefore the Lord Lieutenant most humbly prays Your Majesty to raise Lady Crofton to the degree of a Baroness with the title of Baroness to Her Grace made by Her late Husband Sir Edward Crofton Some Circumstances of a private nature having come ^{to the knowledge of} Captain Beauchamp ^{of what he} would not be aware when he consulted the Duke of Portland submitting his name to Your Majesty as willing to undertake the Government of the Bahama Islands if it should be Your Majesty's pleasure to bestow that appointment upon him.

The Duke of Portland is under the necessity of most humbly requesting Your Majesty's goodness to release Captain Beauchamp from the Government of the Bahamas & to suffer him to return to that of St. J.

M^r Vincent for which he had engaged a vessel to carry all his baggage & effects. & in case your Majesty should consent to grant Captain Beuknach's request, the Duke of Portland would most humbly lay before your Majesty the name of Colonel Doudeswell of the first Regiment of Guards, who has been known for many years to the Duke of Portland, of whose disposition to serve your Majesty in the capacity of a Governor in the West Indies the Duke of Portland has been but very lately informed, & himself fortunate in having so early an opportunity of bringing good good a name under Your Majesty's consideration. Should this suggestion be fortunate as to receive the sanction of Your Majesty's appetition, & that Your Majesty should command Colonel Dowdeswell to repair to the Commons, Your Majesty will be pleased to consider that Colonel Dowdeswell must vacate his seat in the House of Commons, & as the Borough of Tisbury, which he represents was attacked at the last general Election, & that unconquently, some arrangement may be necessary, to secure the election of a successor.

The Duke of Portland hopes Your Majesty will not think him guilty

Should this your Majesty and Dunderwood used to consider the House of the representives usually, some of a Superior
 I think him
 guilty

of too great a degree of presumption in intimating that the success of the next election although unquestionably, could might be attended with considerable expense should your Majesty's intention in favor of Colonel Dunderwood be made known before the arrangements alluded to have been properly made

Buckington House
 Tuesday night 14th Nov: 1797

Duke of Portland
Burlington House
at Nov. 1797

Lord Loughborough
November 26 1797

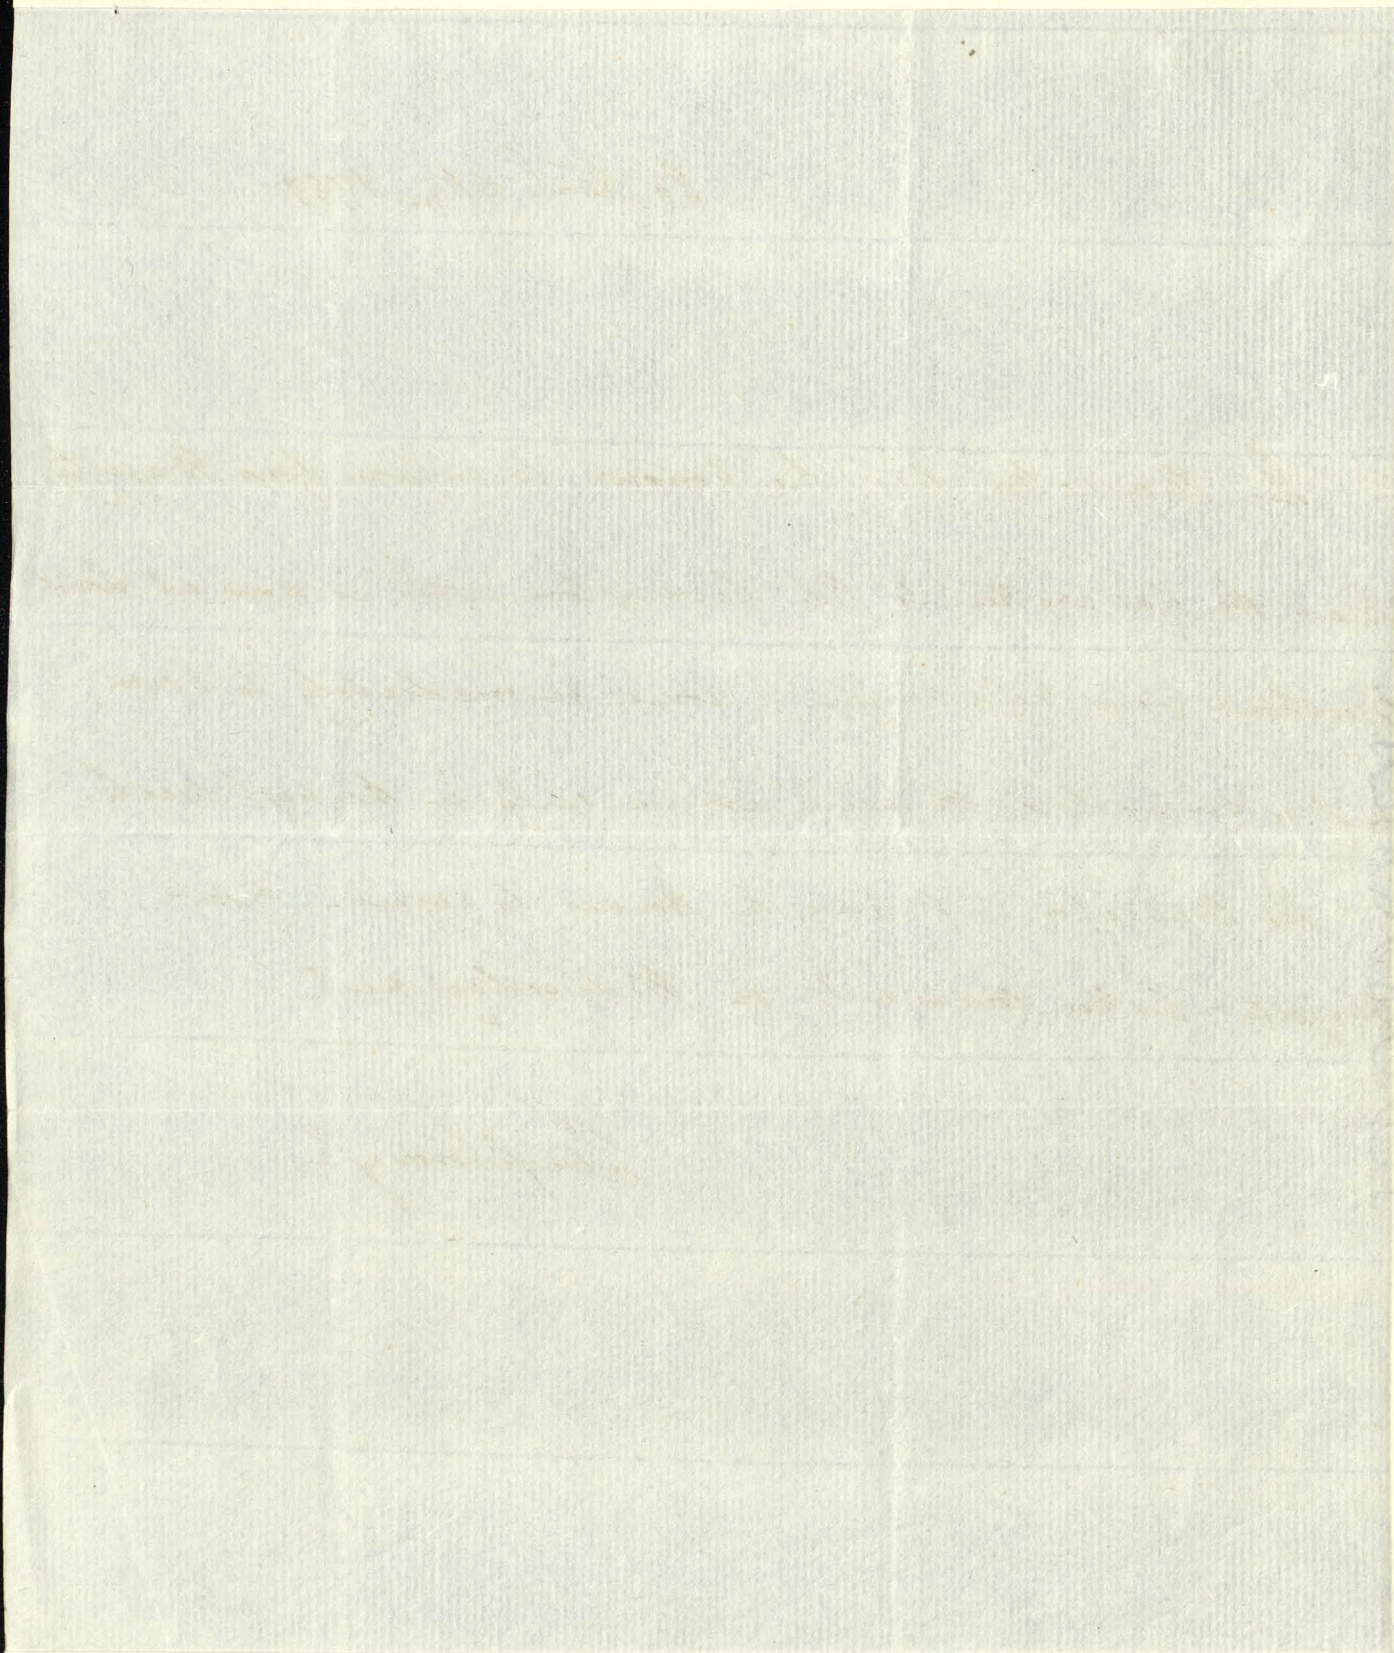

8669

To Lord: 4th Nov 1797

The Chancellor has the honour to inform your Majesty that he has written to Mr. Livingston who is now at Lord Morton's near Edinburgh to come immediately to Town, and is persuaded he will arrive early in the next week.

The Chancellor will have the honour to receive your Majesty's further commands on Wednesday next.

Loughborough

C. de Salgas

Nov. 21 1797

8670-1

Sire,

Une Lettre que je viens de recevoir de M. le General de Bude m'informe que Votre Majeste a eu la bonte de lui remettre pour moi 2 L. 400, & qu'elle a daigné y joindre des assurances de la Bienveillance qui ajoutent encore infiniment au prix de ce nouveau Bienfait. Si Votre Majeste pouvoit lire au fonds de mon coeur, Elle y verroit combien cette Bienveillance & les marques precieuses qu'elle ne cesse de m'en donner, repandent de douceur sur la fin de ma vie; & je ne serois pas dans le penible embarras ou je me trouve si souvent, de lui en temoigner ma vive reconnoissance. Je la supplie tres humblement d'en agrir

1-0738

agréer les foibles mais très sincères expressions avec son indulgence ordinaire, & d'être persuadé qu'il ne manque au bonheur dont la bonté me fait jouir que la faculté de lui montrer, comme je le désirerois, à quel point j'en suis pénétré.

Je ose me flatter que l'indulgence de Votre Majesté voudra bien me permettre encore de joindre mes félicitations à celles de Ses fidèles Sujets sur la glorieuse & importante victoire que Sa Flotte vient de remporter sur celle des Hollandois. Cette marque signalée de la protection Divine dans des circonstances aussi critiques pour la cause de la Justice & de l'ordre, qui repose presque entièrement sur la sagesse & la vigilance des mesures de Votre Majesté & de Son Gouvernement, m'a causé une joie inexprimable, & me donne les espérances les mieux fondées qu'elles procureront bientôt à Ses Royaumes une Paix aussi solide & aussi honorable pour eux qu'avantageuse pour

C. de Salgas

Nov. 21 1797

8671 pour l'humanité. C'est l'objet de mes vœux les plus ardens ainsi que tout ce qui peut contribuer au plus grand bonheur de V^{otre} Majesté, de Sa Majesté la Reine & de la Famille Royale, & la conservation de Leurs Augustes Personnes.

Je suis avec le plus profond Respect & le plus entier Devouement,

Sire,

de V^{otre} Majesté

Paris le 21^e Novembre 1797.

Le très humble & très Obeissant Serviteur

(C. de Salgas.

ces expressions avec tre persuadés qu'il ne bonté me fait jouir que je le désirerois, à quel ulgence de V^{otre} encore de joindre les fidèles Sujets sur la qui la Flotte vient de doit. Cette marque ine dans des circonstances la Justice & de l'ordre, sur la Sagesse & la Majesté & de son Gouver.

inexprimable, & me fondées qu'elles — unes une Paix aussi eux qu'avantageuse

pour

1797 pour l'honneur. C'est l'objet de mes vœux les plus ardents ainsi que tout ce qui peut contribuer au plus grand bonheur de l'État. Je prie Dieu de le faire savoir à la famille Royale, & la conservation de tous ses intérêts.

Je suis avec le plus parfait respect & une haute estime

de
votre

de l'État

de la part de
votre

(de la part de)

M. de
Belgique
le 21. 1797

de la part de

1797

Horribly Maced!

au Duc Regent de Wurtemberg 1797.

The Princess Royal has married to the Arch-Duke on May 18 1797

* 8672 très cher

Mon Cousin, le départ de ma ^{Fille} pour vos Etats m'est une occasion de nouveau de la recommander à votre Amitié je suis sûre qu'elle se conduira de manière d'acquiescer votre Approbation. Si je me permettais d'entrer plus à long sur cette matière ~~peut-être~~ ^{cela paraîtroit vouloir prévenir le} jugement de votre Altesse Sérénissime, au reste je suis avec l'estime la plus haute

Mon Cousin
Votre bon Cousin

GE

au Duc de Wurtemberg

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a piece of paper pasted onto a larger sheet. The text is mirrored and appears to be bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper.]

Henry Dundas

8673

Parcel Street. 22^d. Nov. 1797 4 h. m.

Mr Dundas humbly submits the accompanying draft to your Majesty's consideration, that He may be certain of having properly conceived the sentiments your Majesty directed him to convey.

ld. Grenville

Nov. 22 1797

x 8674

Downing Street Nov. 22 1797-

Lord Grenville has the honour humbly to mention to Your Majesty that the Turkish Ambassador has sent to the Office some packages containing, as he states, some trifling presents for Your Majesty, for the Queen, and for the Princesses, which Lord Grenville has directed to be sent to the Queen's House.

Mr Pitt
Downing Street Nov. 24th 1797

8675

Downing Street

Fridy. Nov 24th 1797

Mr Pitt humbly begs leave to acquaint your Majesty that he opened to day in the House of Commons the Plan for the Ways and Means of the ensuing Year, including in it the Imposition of a little Rate over and above the present Assessed Taxes to the Amount of Seven Millions. - As Mr Pitt had before given Notice that he should propose no Vote on the Subject, like Time had been given for considering the Proposal, The Discussion to day was not long, and it was agreed to defer the further Consideration till Wednesday next. The little that did pass, and the manner in which the Proposal seemed to be received, appeared to furnish a strong additional Proof of the Spirit and Determination which happily prevails in the House.

Duke of Portland

Nov. 24 1797

+ 8676

The Duke of Portland most humbly begs leave to inform Your Majesty, that he has seen Mr Wyatt this afternoon who assures him that if it is Your Majesty's pleasure to have the Thanksgiving on the 12th of next month all the preparations for Your Majesty's reception at St Pauls shall be ready for that day, but the Duke of Portland thinks it right to represent to Your Majesty that although

Mr. Whately's sense of Duty makes him undertake to accomplish what he conceives to be Your Majesty's inclination, that the Duke of Portland thought he could collect that it was Mr. Whately's opinion that it would require three weeks to have the business well done. a circumstance the Duke of Portland, resumes to mention in consequence of Your Majesty appearing to have it yesterday in contemplation to defer the solemnity to the 9th inst. & to his finding that the Arch Bishop of Canterbury was not aware of any objection to that day —

Whitehall House
Sunday night 24. Nov. 1797

Duke of York.

November 20. 1797

8677

Cambridge Mills November 20th 1797

Sir

As We have just received the Intelligence of the King of Prussia's death, I presume to hope that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to excuse my paying my duty to Her at St James's tomorrow, and allow me to delay bringing the Returns and Reports of the Army before Your Majesty till next Week.

The Duchess has born the news much better than I could have expected, particularly as I did not find her so well as my return here on Sunday, as she has been for some time

I have the Honor to be.

Sir

Your Majesty's

Most dutiful Son and Subject

Frederick

