

Duke of Portland

July 1 1798

8933-4

The Duke of Portland most humbly begs leave to lay before Your Majesty a dispatch received this morning from the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland containing a report of a very decisive advantage gained over the Rebels in the neighbourhood of Gores bridge by Sir Charles Asgill. The Duke of Portland also begs leave to recommend Your Majesty that the Bill for the Government

Government of the English ^{in Ireland} Bill is arrived, & is now before Your Majesty's laws Secretaries, who will have prepared their Report upon it in the course of this afternoon but unfortunately not at so early an hour as to make it possible to have it submitted to Your Majesty in the course of this evening. But considering the great importance of this Bill's being passed into a Law with all the dispatch which is consistent with Your Majesty's convenience, the Duke of Portland presumes to request

Duke of Portland

July 1 1798

8934 request your Majesty's permission for the Council to attend your Majesty tomorrow at Windsor at as early an hour as your Majesty will please to command

Buckingham House
Sunday 1st July 1798
5th p. 3. p. m.

Duke of Brabant
July 1. 1798

Duke of Portland

July 2 1798

8935 - 6

The Duke of Portland most humbly begs leave to add to the petition presented from the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland which we herewith submit to Your Majesty a private Letter from him which in as far as it contains the intention of bringing the effect of a Proclamation of pardon with certain exceptions & of encouraging to correct the ideas & language of those who are too much disposed to give this Rebellion the colour of a War of Religion

has expiated the purpose of a despatch of which the Duke of Portland had prepared a draft before he left Town to be sent before your Majesty - The Duke of Portland begs leave also to acquaint your Majesty that he has the satisfaction to find by a private letter he has received from Major General Lyttel dated Wexford the 27th June that the Duke had got possession of almost every one of the Chiefs of the Rebellion in that County without any resistance or considerable loss that the number of the Rebels is very great, that their arms are abundant & all the information which can be procured is evident that they have very little ammunition & that he looks

Duke of Portland

July 2 1798

8936 the Duke of

to be said before also is acquainted by or pursuant of almost every very great, than are performed that he looks upon the business which settled in that part of the County. The Gen^l Loftus concludes his Letter by saying that he is going with Lieut. Lake to Dublin -

Bathwick
Monday 2^d July 1798
2 p. m.

Order of Distances
July 2. 1790.

Ld. Cirencester

July 5 1798

8937_8

*

Drawing Sheet July 5 1798

Your Majesty will receive with this box a despatch from Sir William Hamilton respecting the recall of M. de Cicullo, and the appointment of the Prince de Belmonte to reside here as Minister from the Court of Naples. M. de Cicullo made this

16 this morning a similar communication to Lord Grenville, but shewed him at the same time a supposed dispatch in which M. de Gallo acquaints him that there are circumstances which will in the present moment prevent the Prince de Belmonte from setting out for England, and that M. de Arcello is therefore to continue to exercise his functions as before, and to be guided by his former orders.

(In this state of uncertainty and contra.

Ld Grenville

July 5 1798

8938

to Lord me time a Gallo acquaint ch with in de Holmoute
M. de ise his by his nd contra.

- diction, Lord Grenville has advised M. de Grenville to keep his recall secret for the present, and has promised to do so likewise.

Lord Grenville
July 5 1790

Carl Spencer.

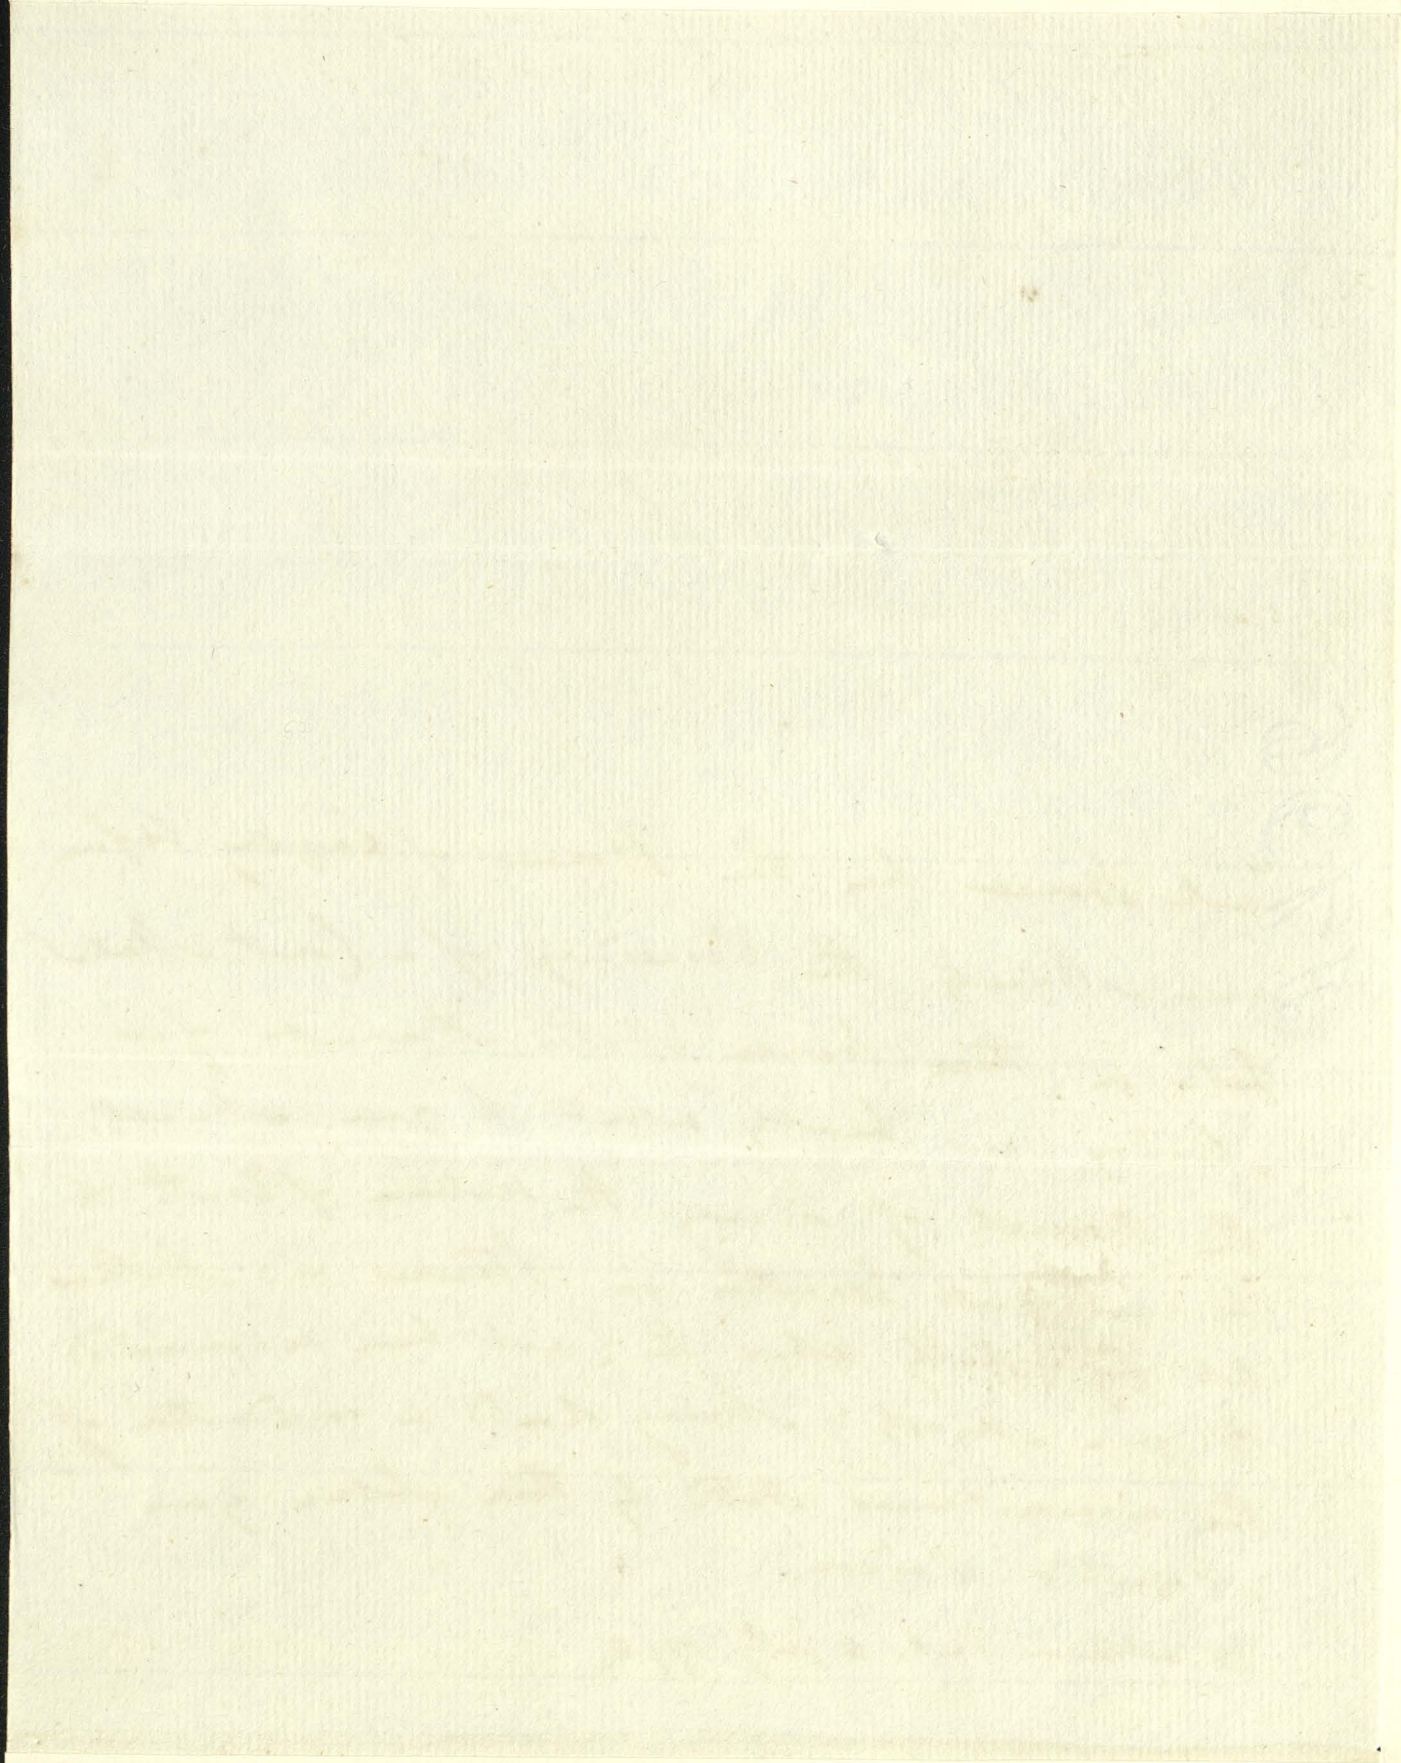

Wimbledon Park 8th July 1798.

8939

*

Carl Spencer has the Honour of laying before your Majesty the Proceedings of a Court Martial held on three Members of the Regiment for Mutiny, and humbly submits to your Majesty the Propriety of adding the Sentence of Death to be carried into Execution on Steevens and Mullins but that Kelly when the Court have recommended to your Majesty's Mercy should in consideration of the circumstances stated by them obtain your Majesty's Pardon.

Wimbledon Park. 8 July 1798.

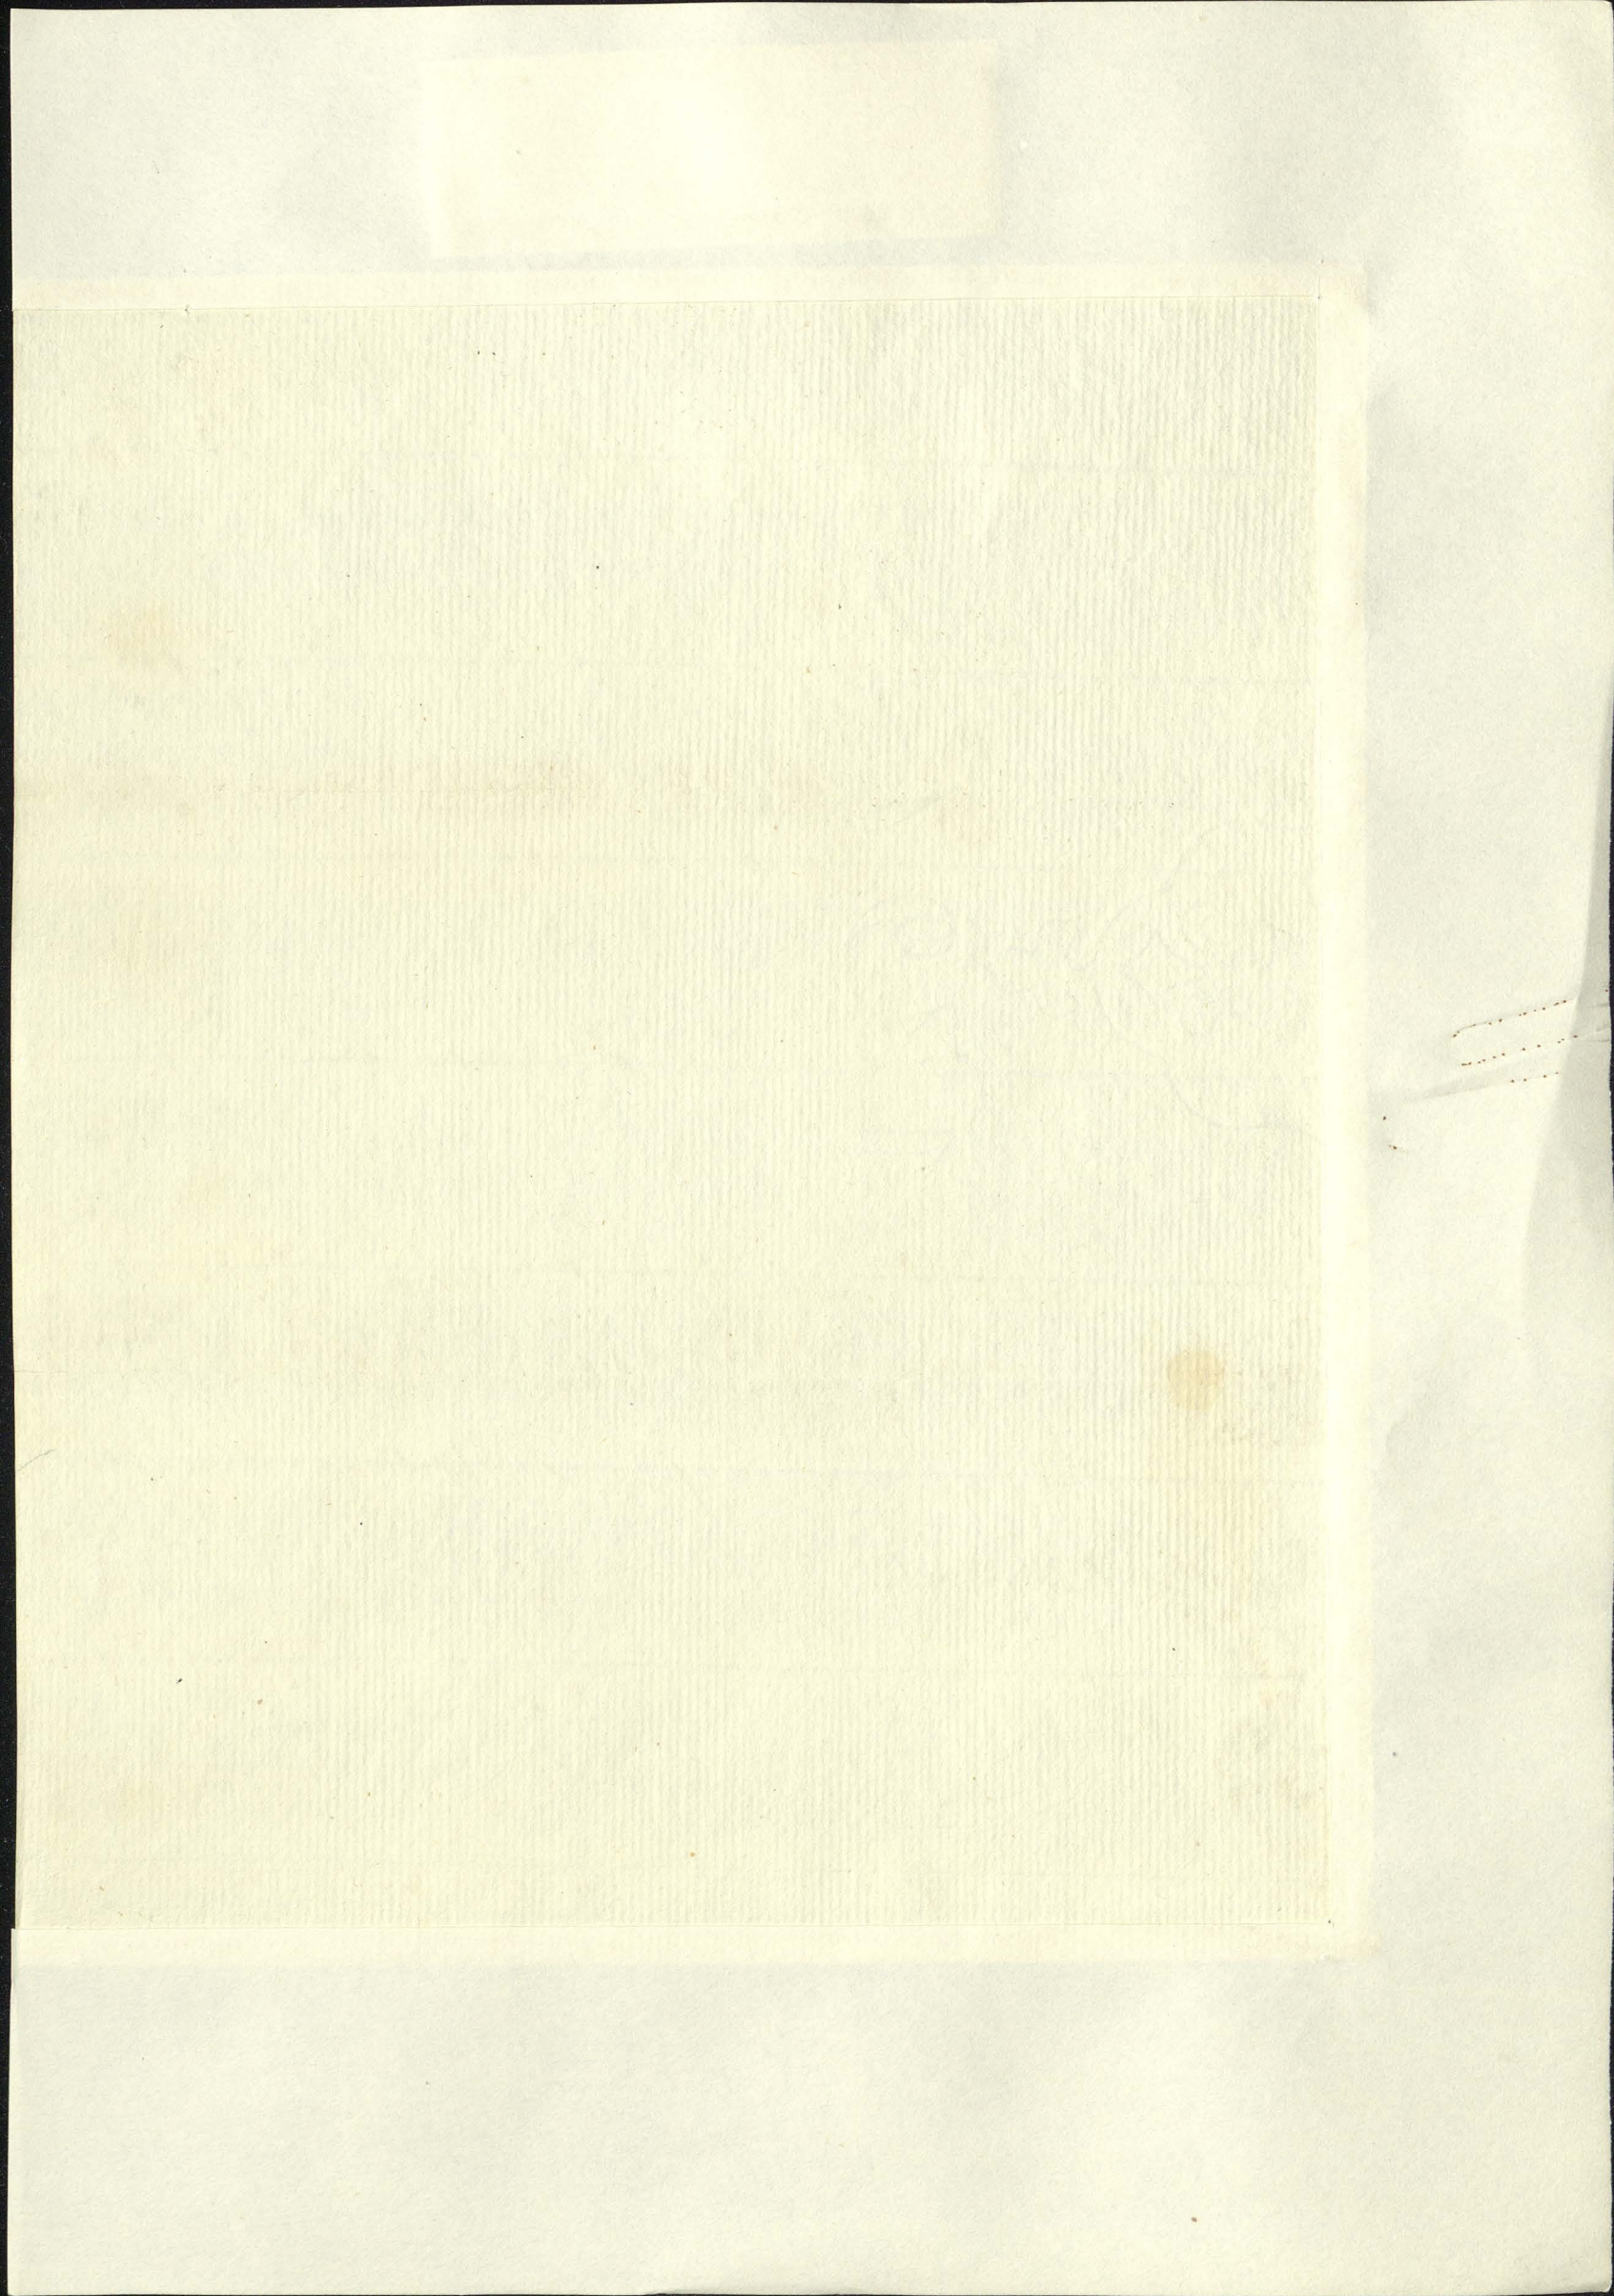

Lord Grenville,
Drogheda, 10 July 1798.

8940

Drogheda July 10. 1798.

Lord Grenville has the honour to transmit to Your Majesty two private letters with their inclosures which he has received from Sir William Hamilton by the last Mail.

Carl Spencer.

Admiralty 10th June 1790.
July

8941

It is with great Concern that Carl Spencer (is), himself under the Necessity of so soon again begin, before your Majesty a Sentence on two Issues for Mutiny, and of humbly submitting to your Majesty the Propriety of its being carried into Execution, but the present Case is of so very atrocious a Description, that any relaxation from the utmost Rigour of the Law can't but fail of being attended with dangerous consequences to your Majesty's Service.

Admiralty. 10 July. 1790.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper]

Geo. Hammond

8942

x

Downing Street July 13th 1688 in the morning

Mr Hammond most humbly begs leave to represent to your Majesty that there are by the mail just arrived a dispatch from Mr Geniville, another from Sir Charles Whitworth, and a third from Lord Robert Fitzgerald, all in cypher; but as they will require some time to be decyphered, Mr Hammond has not thought it proper to detain, on account of them, the Messengers for your Majesty beyond the usual hour.

M^r Hammond

Downing St^h 13 July 1790

Mr. Thomas Keate
[Dr. John Keate 6 ?]

8943-4

Wilmington Street

July 15. 91

Mr. Keate
15. July 1891

Dear Sir

Having received the inclosed Letter & Paper this morning from Mr. Sharp at Fulham I think it is my duty to transmit both to you, and shall be obliged to you, if you see no objection, to lay them before the King.
It is scarcely necessary for me to add that the Paper, addressed to the King, contains my sentiments also: because I flatter myself His Majesty is already informed thereof. I beg leave to add one circumstance, that in case His Majesty should be pleased to inquire if I know of any situation proposing the requisites stated in Mr. Sharp's Paper, I should humbly submit to His Majesty the Village of Worthing, between Little Hampton & Shoreham, on the Sussex Coast. There are ~~houses near the Sea~~ that have been built within these three or four years, with no road between them and the Sea; the bathing very good, and the Sands unequal any where that I have ever seen. The Village is retired, and there is not room for much Company. I have been also informed, since I received Mr. Sharp's Letter that three of the houses, above mentioned are at present unoccupied. Whether there would be adequate to Her Royal Highness's accommodation is not for me to judge. They are at least & back a thro descent possible may be water

Ha
about enabl
The
the ex
that th furthe de, but west little aside
Ther

least clean, ⁸⁹⁴⁴ and the two rooms, fore & back, are laid together, so as to produce a thorough air, when necessary. The descent to the Sands is the easiest possible, & when on them a carriage may go for four or five miles at the water edge, ~~without interruption.~~

Having been there with my children about three years since, I am enabled to give this particular account.

The River at Shoeham Terminates the Excursions upon the Sands, so that there is no possibility of going further Eastward towards Brighton &c, but as far as Little Hampton westward.

Of Bosphor I can say but little, having only seen it, during a ride upon the Sands from Worthing.
There are however no ~~roads~~ and the airings must be inland. I have heard that the place is more public but that it has good accommodation, in houses.

Of Rottingdean I can only say that the houses are tolerable; there are no sands, and at certain times if tide no bathing; here also my children were three summers.

Of Eastbourne I need say nothing.
I leave you to make what use you please of the above information. I can have no other view & no possible wish but upon all occasions to study Their Majesties Pleasure, & to throw myself at Their Majesties feet.
I have the honor to be, my Dear Madam, Your faithful servant

W. Thomas Keate

Wm. Sharp [Dr. John Keate]
Etc.

Dear Sir 8945

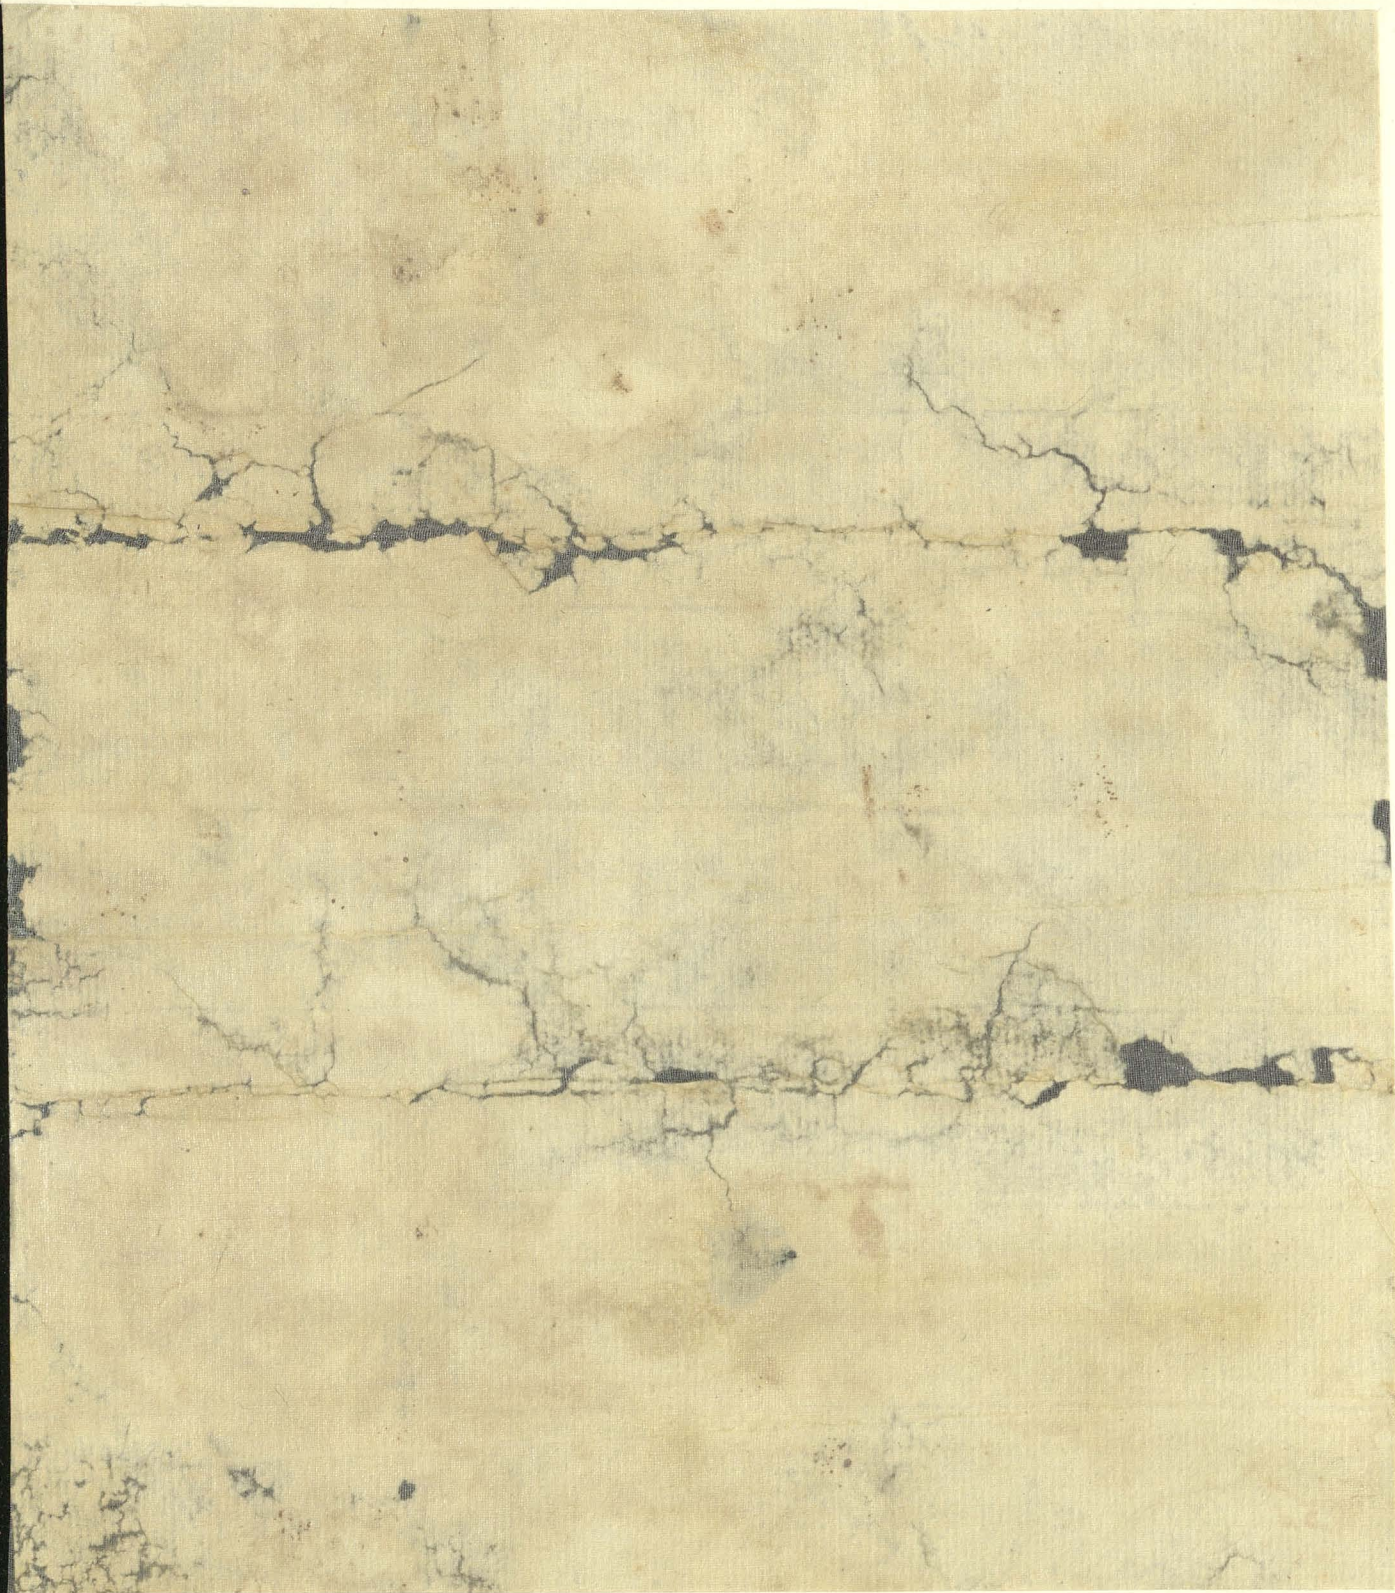

Fulham 15 July 1798 ^{With Mr Keate 15 July} 1798

Having some doubt that I may not have explained myself properly to his Majesty after I had the honor of making my last visit to her Royal Highness the Princess Amelia; I am anxious to state my opinion in writing, desiring of to explain to his Majesty more clearly & fully, any thing I may have omitted; & I am the rather inclined to represent this through yourself, as the long conversation we had together enable you to know my sentiments perfectly.

I am, dear Sir,

your most humble servant

W. Sharp

To the King

Mr Sharp most humbly begs permission to lay before His Majesty those circumstances which occurred to him after the last Visit he had the Honor of paying to Her Royal Highness the Princess Amelia.

That on making some trials of the ability of her Royal Highness to bear motion, he was much disappointed at finding that every motion produced some distress; also

That it is clearly his Opinion, that the Sea Air is highly necessary for the recovery of Her Royal Highness.

Should His Majesty be pleased to wish to be informed of Mr Sharp's opinion, in the present case of a journey to Weymouth; he begs leave humbly to represent that so long a journey cannot, with safety to Her Royal Highness, be performed in one day; and it would be extremely hazardous to set out on a journey of more than one day.

both on account of the impossibility of beginning a second days journey, whilst under the influence of additional pain, & the almost certainty of one days journey, even a short one, producing some temporary distress.

Mr Sharp therefore begs leave, with the ~~ut most deference~~ to recommend that the place to be wished for ~~might~~ as near as possible to Windsor, where there is an open Sea View, with the Windows of the Apartment looking upon the Sea; good accommodations at all times of the Tide for bathing & Sands upon which a Carriage may drive.

Carl Spencer.
Admiralty - 17 July 1798.

8947

Carl Spencer has the Honor to lay before your Majesty the Proceedings of a Court Martial held at Portsmouth on two Men belonging to the Pluto Sloop; and humbly submits to your Majesty that it will be necessary to order the Sentence of Death passed on John Bygon to be carried into Execution, as he appears to be a very fit Subject for an Example.

Admiralty. 17 July. 1798.

Carl S. Vincent

17th July 1798

8948

Sir

My labor and the last drop of my Blood are devoted to the defense of your Majesty's sacred Person, and Government.
Should I survive this War, and your Majesty would be graciously pleas'd to bestow the Mangership of Greenwich Park on me, the remainder of my days would be pleasingly pass'd, amidst the Scenes of my youth, for I was educated at Swindon's Academy, and near the Boyles, of those gallant Seamen who have carried your Majesty's Arms, to a pitch of Glory, beyond that of any former Reign.

Greenwich Park, from rights exercised by the People, time immemorial, exhibits a scene of polemic gambol, and indecorous profane, which renders it a very unfit residence for any Branch of the Royal Family, or I should not have presumed, after what I have been to have again thought of it

I have the honor to be with the most profound respect

Sire

your Majestys

Most faithful and dutiful servant
St Vincent

Ville de Paris before Cadix. 17. July 1798

AA

E. Livingston

- 8949 - 50

+

Vienna 18 July 1795

Sire

I am honor'd with your Majesty's letter of 29 June, and made very happy by your gracious approbation of my conduct, your Majesty may depend on my making it my chief study to obey your commands, and to render every contribution in my power to the prince Augustus, whos conduct since our arrival here has been very proper, at same time I cannot flatter my self that His Royal Highness honors me with his confidence, I am afraid the advice the prince got from England before my arrival has made a deep impression on his mind, and will not be easily removed; I will do everything

For copy see Geo. Add. Mss. 9/443

AA B possible to deserve his friendship, and to merit his Esteem

Lord Grenville sent last week an order to Sir Morton Eden to furnish me with a credit to the amount of 4000^l, which I will manage with proper Economy, and Mr Pitt shall have very exact vouchers for every Shilling spent for the Princes Service; I beg your Majesty may be graciously pleas'd to let me have your commands concerning the Princes allowance for his pocket Money, also, the exact Sum for the Support of His Royal Highnesss Household, til I have your Majesty's Commands on that Subject it is not easy for me to act with propriety Wth respect to the Princes demands for money have been moderate, His Royal Highnesss thinks it

AA

E. Livingston

8950 d to merit his orders to Sir credit to the annage with ll have very spent for the ty may be your command, for his pocket support of til I have at Subject propriety r money have to think it will be better for him, and me, that your Majesty pay the exact sum for his pocket money, since our arrival here I have paid all the princes personal bills very well, also that of his House hold as Doctor Domier is full of opinion that the princes constitution cannot stand the climate of Germany in winter, or late in the Autumn, it is necessary to think seriously of removing soon from Vienna, the Doctor says Portugal is preferable to every other climate, Italy excepted to that Country he never can advise his return, and since the French are in possession of Malta, all Italy is in a most critical situation, Doctor Domier says on reflection altho the climate of Gibraltar would be favorable to the princes health, that he is certain the style of living there would prove

For copy see Geo. Add. Mss. 9/443

Mr. Livingston

10 July 1790

permissions to His Royal Highness, and I have reason to believe the Prince would not easily consent to be shut up here, unless employed as an officer.
The best climate the Doctor says is Devonshire where he thinks the climate would agree with the Prince perfectly, your Majesty's pleasure as to our remaining, and where to fix for the winter is very necessary, and the sooner you graciously please to order your commands to be sent me, the better: The Prince cannot bear the fatigue of travelling quick, and I wish to have His Royal Highness in winter quarters before the cold weather sets in I have the honor to be with the most profound Respect

Sire
your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subject
By Livingston

Duke of Portland

July 21 1798

8951 - 2

x

The Duke of Portland most humbly begs leave to acquaint Your Majesty that the Act of Grace the Decree of which was sent over by the Lord Chancellor of Ireland on Thursday & which the Duke of Portland was commended by Your Majesty to refer to Your Majesty's Law Officers has been settled by them & will be ready to be laid before Your Majesty at any time

12 8 have after one o'clock tomorrow at which Your Majesty will be pleased to signify Your Commands to the Duke of Portland that Your Majesty will appoint to be attended by Your Council for the purpose of delaying Your Royal Pleasure to grant an act of Grace & Pardon to Your Majesty's subjects in Ireland & to sign the Bill to that effect. The Lord Chancellor who is with the Duke of Portland & Lord Goswell & Mr. Hyde will be in readiness to attend Your Majesty's commands -

the

Duke of Portland

July 21 1798

8952 in majesty and

Duke of Portland
led by your great pleasure in my subjects
The Lord Chancellor
and Mr. Ryder commands -
the

The Duke of Portland humbly begs leave to lay before your majesty the (other) letter to Mr. Wickham which contains the only account which has been transmitted ^{to day} of the state of Ireland & is as far as it goes a representation of the allusion which appeared by the last address to be happily taking place in the disposition & sentiments of the debilitated people of that Country

Bath

Saturday night 21 July 1798

Duke of Portland,
Bathwick - 21 July 1790

Lord Grenville
Dropmore. 23. July 1798.

8953

Dropmore July 23. 1798.

Lord Grenville has the honour to transmit to Your Majesty a letter from Mr. Livingston, respecting which he humbly begs to be honoured with Your Majesty's commands. He has also the honour to submit to Your Majesty two separate letters from Lord Algier, with the draft of the answer which which, if Your Majesty should be graciously pleas'd to approve it, he proposes sending by Lord Elyn's servant tomorrow.

H. H. to E. Livingston,

8954

Windsor July 24th 1798.

Though I have not kept a Copy of my first letter to M^r Livingston, I think I did not mention the Receipt of his of the 1st of May wherein he mentions the very handsome conduct of Sir William Hamilton on the dilemma concerning the debts of my Son Augustus; M^r Pitt has my directions to have that matter arranged, though they certainly greatly exceed my expectations; I do not enter further on the subject of money as I think it much better that that Article should remain in the hands of Lord Grenville, M^r Pitt and M^r Dundas, who have my fullest directions on that head and will write to you on that subject. I shall certainly in a friendly though strong manner write to Augustus on the necessity of his keeping within the allowances intended for him, and the instructions to you from the Ministers shall be very pointed.
It may not be improper to mention

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

Earl Spencer
25th July 1798

This endorsement
presumably belongs to 8957

8955-6

x

Downing Street.

Wednesday July 25th
1798

Mr Pitt begs leave to make his humble Excuses for not paying his Duty at Mr James's to Day. He was prevented from coming at as early an hour as he had intended, and stopped afterwards on being informed, (as he since finds, by Miss Lake) that there was a Recorder's Report, like he was too late. He takes the Liberty also, in consequence of the Intimation which your Majesty has had the Condescension and Goodness to send by Mr Dundas, to submit to your Majesty that the two Persons in the House of Commons, whom he should venture to recommend as the

Carl Spencer
25th July 1798

This endorsement
presumably belongs
to 8957

8956 fitted Objects of Professional Discretion are Mr. Perceval and Mr. Brough. The Office of Solicitor to the Queen might perhaps be more material on account of its Rank to the latter than to Mr. Perceval who has already a Silk Gown. But he is at the same Time not certain without Inquiry whether the Nature of Mr Bragge's Practice would render Precedence advantageous to Him.

Your Majesty may perhaps have the Goodness to permit Mr Pitt to ascertain privately this Point from the Speaker to whom it will be peculiarly gratifying to learn that Mr Bragge (who is his Brotherⁱⁿ Law) has been in Contempt Mr Pitt submits some Warrants for Your Majesty's Signature.

Mr Pitt
Downing Street
1793
252

Ld. Spencer

July 25 1798

8957

x

Earl Spencer having been informed that Captain Matthew Smith late of your Majesty's Ship the Pionade intends to attend to Day at James's in order to pay his Duties to your Majesty, thinks it his Duty to lay before your Majesty the accompanying Copy of an Order issued by your Majesty in Council for Captain Smith's remaining on the List of Captains notwithstanding the Sentence of a Court Martial by which he was dismissed from Your Majesty's Service, lest the Circumstances of his Case should have escaped.

Your Majesty's Recollection. Your Majesty will observe that though by the Opinion of the Attorney & Solicitor General the Sentence was reported to be irregular, the Merits of the Case do not appear to be at all affected by that Determination.

Admiralty 25 July. 1798.

Lord Grenville

July 26 1798

8958-9

x

Cleveland Row July 26.
1798
4 P.M.

Lord Grenville trusts that the great importance of the subject of the inclosed papers, to Your Majesty's Government in Ireland, will plead his apology to Your Majesty for breaking in upon Your Majesty this evening, as it may be important that any ideas which Your Majesty

Magists may think proper to give on the subject to Baron Lenthé, or to him, should be executed in time for tomorrow's Mail. Lord Grenville is perfectly sensible that the matter itself is in many respects a delicate one, and he presumes to say no more upon it, than that from the intelligence which has at different times been procured this may appear to have been the principal channel of communication between the Enemy

Ld. Grenville

July 26 1798

8959

The subject executed is is in presumes to the intell.
been pro.
the princi.
the Enemy

Enemy, and the Irish Rebels: and therefore that his being sent to Ireland (if the thing is possible) would be a point of very great advantage.
But your Majesty alone can judge how far this can be done.

Nothing else of importance is by the Mail.

Ed. Frenville
Chamberlain Room July 26th 1798.
A. P. M.

A. H. to the Countess of Arundel

8960

x

Windsor July 26. 1795
on p. 7. P. H.

I have just received the Papers Lord Grenville has forwarded to me; the whole business seems so irregular and in its consequences so delicate that I do not think it is possible I can with any safety give the Orders Mr. Creechfield seems to wish. I have kept the papers for further consideration I will send Mr. Bouverie and tomorrow morning write more explicitly, though I do not think at present I can possibly consent to be taking a step which I fear is contrary to every idea of neutrality in Germany.

George B.

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

copy.
H. to Ed Grenville
London July 26th 1798
MS. A. 9. 2.

Mr Pitt
Downing Street July 27th 1798

8961

Downing Street.
Friday July 27th 1798

Mr Pitt begs your Majesty's Permission to express how much he feels your Majesty's Goodness in encouraging him to make use of the present Interval for his Excursion to the Sea Coast, and he means immediately to avail himself of your Majesty's gracious Permission. He has written to the Speaker to make the Inquiry which Your Majesty has had the goodness to allow with respect to Mr Poragge

The accompanying Warrants are submitted for Your Majesty's Signature.

Duke of Portland

July 30. 1798

8962

+

July 30. 1798

Your Majesty was pleased to signify upon the copy of the Recorder of London's Letter in which he requested the Duke of Portland that His Report of the Convicts who were tried last September at the Old Bailey was ready to be laid before Your Majesty, that Your Majesty would receive it either on last Wednesday or next Wednesday the first of August. The Duke of Portland most humbly humbly requests to know whether it is Your Majesty's pleasure that the Recorder should be ordered to attend Your Majesty at St. James's at the usual hour after the Levée on Wednesday next.

Bathurst

Monday 30 July 1798

30 p. m.

Lord Grenville,
Drogheda. 31st July 1790.

8963

*

Drogheda July 31. 1798

Lord Grenville has the honour humbly to acquaint Your Majesty that the Marquis de Spinola who long since received his letters of recall, is now returning to Genoa, and has applied to have the honour of an audience of leave. As M. de Spinola's principles are good, and as his personal conduct has always been unexceptionable Lord Grenville judged judged that Your Majesty would not refuse this request, and has therefore appointed M. de Spindola for tomorrow unless he should receive any different orders from Your Majesty.