

AA

E. Livingston

8985 - 6

Uxma 5th Sept 1790

Sire

I have received by Mr Arbuthnot the honor of your Majesty's most Gracious Letter; By the long Acquaintance I have had of that Gentleman I have no doubt of His Royal Highness's pleasure Augustus having made a valuable Acquisition I want words to Express my respectful Gratitude to your Majesty for having been graciously pleased to have sent me Mr Arbuthnot for an Assistant.

I have also received by Mr Arbuthnot a letter from Lord Grenville informing me that he had got your Majesty's Commands to let me know that you had been graciously pleased to fix the different Sums for the pence's pocket money

For copy see Geo. Add. Mss. 9 | 448

AA
E
for the Royal Highness attendants, and for the Support of her household; your Majesty has made so ample an allowance, I think it impossible any more Debts can be contracted, The Prince has assured me in every solemn Manner, that he is determined to regulate his Conduct to your Majesty's Satisfaction: In my Department your Majesty may depend on the greatest attention being paid to gentle Economy, and regularity in the manag-=ment of the Princes's Household as your Majesty has been graciously pleased to command me to augment Doctor Dornier's allowance, as he sits at his Royal Highness table, and always admitted into the Princes's Society He must be gently desired, and by his constant attendance on the Prince, and careful attention to his health, he cannot have much practice with out Doors, Therefore if your Majesty approve it, I propose giving him 300 a year, but shall not

AA

E. Livingston

8986

Mention it to the Doctor til I receive your Majestys Command

I had yesterday the honor of a long Conversation with the prince on the Subject of your Majestys letter to me, and on your paternal affection in wishing to have His Royal Highness removed before winter to as mild a Climate, as the Critical State of Europe may permit with safety, and that your Majesty had mentioned Astracan, or some other of the Southern provinces of Russia. I have taken the liberty to propose to the prince to leave Vienna as soon as the Carriages can be put in good repair for a long Journey, To go from thence to Dresden, to remain there as long as necessary to see every thing worth the attention of a traveller, and to pay our respects to the Elector - Then to proceed to Berlin, after a short Stay there, His Royal Highness, and the Doctor will be able to determine how far it may be prudent, or the

For copy see Geo. Add. Mss. 9 / 448

2. The prince's health permit our undertaking in October and now, the journey to Petersburg. If His Royal Highness' health don't permit travelling so far at that season, we may proceed to Breslau in Silesia, or to Warsaw, both large cities, and very good society, where the prince may stop for a few months, in winter, and proceed early in the spring to Petersburg. So far as I have been able to judge after so short a trial, I think keeping the prince moving, and not allowing his Royal Highness to remain very long in the same place may be of great service, and wear off habits contracted in Italy, I wish the prince at a very great distance from that country, and as much as possible to give up all correspondence with the society he left in that country, that can only be done by carrying him at a very great distance; The journey proposed may be very interesting, and give the prince a great notion of the Courts and Constitution of the Northern Countries. I intend writing to your Majesty's Minister at Petersburg to send me the Emperor's passports for His Royal Highness and his attendants, without them no foreigner can enter the Russian dominions. It also may be necessary that your Majesty give your orders to Lord Grenville to inform Sir Charles Whitworth that you intend that Prince Augustus shall be some time in Russia and he will take the proper method to inform the Emperor. I will take all the necessary precaution that the prince be received in the different Courts we may go to, with the Attention and Respect Due to his High Rank.

I have the Satisfaction to assure your Majesty that the prince is at present in good health and I hope with prudence may continue so. As His Royal Highness will be near Brunswick when at Berlin he certainly will be invited to visit his Aunt, when I had the honor to pay my respects there, Her Royal Highness and the Duke expressed a great Desire to see the Prince Augustus. If your Majesty allows Her Royal Highness to go to Chansworth for a short time, I hope you may be graciously pleased to allow Prince Adolphus to come for a few days to see his Mother he will give Prince Augustus good advice. Her letters to her Mother are admirable and full of fine and delicate Sentiments

Prince Frederick of Orange is now here I have done every thing in my power to have him as much as possible with Prince Augustus He is a charming young man modest brave and Generous an excellent Officer very much respected and in very high Estimation

When I had
 Her Royal
 a great
 If your need to go
 I hope you know Prince
 to see his Augustus brother and delicate

now here
 power to have
 Prince Augustus
 modest brave never very high estimation

with the Emperor and the whole Army If he lives he certainly will be soon at the head of his profession

I beg your Majesty may be graciously pleased to order your Command for me to be sent to Berlin

I have the honor to be with the most profound Respect

Sire

Your Majesty's most faithful and dutiful Subject

J Livingstone

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a folded piece of paper]

Mr. [illegible]
September 1, 1900

Duke of Portland

Sep. 1 1798

8989-90

+

It is with extreme concern that the Duke of Portland begs Your Majesty the dispatches which have arrived this morning from Ireland giving an account of another adventure which has been gained over Your Majesty's Troops under the command of a General Lalor, of the Army having taken possession of them. With a view however to counteract as speedily as possible the bad effects of these events such of Your Majesty's confidential servants as are in town are humbly

of opinion to recommend with all deference to Your Majesty that such a number of Militia Regiments as will amount to the same already in Ireland to 12000 men, the number which Your Majesty was empowered by the Act of last Session to send to that Kingdom, should be ordered to prepare themselves ~~in readiness~~ to embark for, & without loss of time. & the propriety of the occasion appearing to be so urgent that Your Majesty's Councils <sup>have</sup> felt it to be their indispensable duty to presume to give such directions as are necessary for the immediate embarkation of ~~that~~ number of Your Majesty's Militia Lords

Duke of Portland

Sep. 1 1798

8990

Registry that both those Duke's Registry that London, embark for a appreciated to be less indispenable
day for the istys British Domes

wasistally with their present stations Saves from those Ports which are most unnumbered for this unwaray at the default places of destination specified in the Lord's accounts dispatch from Tubbergen.

Cardington House
Saturday 1 Sept: 1798
40 p. 3. p. m.

The Duke of Portland

1st Sept. 1792

Duke of York
2<sup>d</sup> Sept. 1798

8991 Warrguards September 2. 1798

Sir

I have the Honor to report to Your Majesty that in consequence of the very unpleasant accounts which were received yesterday from Ireland, I was sent for to Court, when I found an official Letter in Your Majestys name from the Duke of Portland which probably has been transmitted to Your Majesty but if by Oversight it has not, I have the honor to submit a copy directing a very considerable Reinforcement to be sent without loss of time to Ireland, in obedience to which Arrangements have been made conformable to the inclosed Memorandum, which I trust will meet with Your Majestys approbation.

As there are a sufficient number of Regiments of Militia ordered in for Ireland to form four Brigades, I have directed Major General Graham and Doffus in addition to Major General Mordaunt to proceed then immediately to take the Command of two of them, and I by leave do recommend to Your Majesty that Major General Mordaunt who is still in Ireland may be placed upon the British Staff and ordered to take the Command of the fourth Brigade

As it will be necessary for the Regiments going to Ireland to take their flank Companies with them which will be infinitely too great a Diminution of the force at Weymouth, I humbly propose to Your Majesty that the Chester Militia which consist of above one thousand Rank and file, may be ordered to Weymouth, and that the flank Companies of the Regiments remaining in Sea William Pitts division may upon their arrival be ordered to join their respective Battalions

I am Sir Your most Obedient

Yours Majesty's

Most Obedient Servant

And Subject to Your Majesty's

Duke of Portland

Sept. 4 1798

8992_3

x

4 Sept 1798

The Duke of Portland has returned to City before your Majesty the letter which arrived this morning from Ireland & a letter from Lord Castlereagh, <sup>received after the departure of the fleet</sup> ~~involving~~ the minute of a conversation which passed between Mr. Rowden a person confidentially employed in the Chief Secretary's Office in Ireland & the three Secretaries of State who subscribed the advertisement which has so dangerously injured your

72
8
Your Majesty's Indignation - The Duke of Portland fears Your Majesty will not be more satisfied with this than with the former proceedings respecting those Factors to which the Lord Lieutenant seems to have been induced to give way from the difficulties which it had been represented to him would attend their conviction, & the great desire of restoring quiet to the Country, possibly among other views with that of re-establishing the discipline of that part of Your Majesty's Army, which is composed of the Irish Militia, whose enormous irregularities surpass imagination - The Duke of Portland humbly wishes to acquaint Your Majesty that he has had the satisfaction of being <sup>an</sup> order from me.

Duke of Portland

Sept. 4 1798

8993

Now Your Majesty proceedings
seems to have it had been great desire of us with that of Your Majesty's
desires appropriate to acquiesce Your Majesty's
Me.

North of Ireland dated the 30th of August in the evening from a very accurate & impartial observer which states that the most perfect tranquillity & good order prevail in that part of the Kingdom —

As in case of any accident happening to Lord Cornwallis which should deprive him of the power of administering the Government of Ireland His Powers would cease & be suspended until Your Majesty's pleasure could be signified, or, as some are disposed to imagine if the appointment of a new Chief Governor by Your Majesty should not be notified in 8 days after the decease or other departure of the Lord Lieutenant's functions the Privy Council would have the choice of a temporary Governor until they

they received the notification of your Majesty's Commands, your Majesty's Councils deeply engaged with the sense of the dangers of that Country falling into such a position at such a Crisis as the present consider is their duty most humbly to <sup>submit this</sup> representation to your Majesty, & with the most dutiful & respectful defence to suggest to your Majesty as an expedient the ordering a provisional appointment of a Lord Deputy to be made out in case of any of the Councils which may occasion a vacancy. the peculiar circumstances of the times induce them to offer it as their most humble opinion to your Majesty that it may be more conducing to your Majesty's service that the powers of Government should be placed in one or two hands at most than in the greater number; & that <sup>conferences of two or three persons at most</sup> ~~it~~ ~~would~~ would be more likely to prevent such an eventual appearance, should your Majesty think proper to make it, your being <sup>particularly</sup> known & speculated upon. with this view also it is further submitted to your Majesty that Mr Pelham, whose health it is hoped is sufficiently restored to enable him to resume the duties of his employment in Ireland & respecting which the Duke of Portland has taken the means of informing himself, appears to <sup>myself of your Majesty's confidence</sup> ~~them~~ to be the most worthy of being so entrusted with so important a charge, or jointly with the Lord Chancellor of Ireland; or in case Mr Pelham should not be able to return immediately to Ireland, that the Lord Chancellor alone is well qualified

qualified to fill that station, & would be better able to discharge the duties of it by himself than in conjunction with any of his Countrymen

Buckingham House

Tuesday 4th Sept: 1798

3. p. m.

Duke of York
5th Sept. 1798

8995

Callands September 5th 1798

Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of Your Majesty's two most gracious letters of the 2<sup>d</sup> and 3<sup>d</sup> Instant, and am rejoiced to hear that Your Majesty's arrival safely at Weymouth.

I am very happy that Your Majesty is pleased to approve of the different arrangements which have been made for sending the reinforcements to Ireland. I must however, that in consequence of the late intelligence from the Lord Lieutenant, it will not be judged necessary to send the whole Force now under orders, at least till some account is received of the event of the Attack intended to be made by Lord Cornwallis.

Directions shall be sent in obedience to Your Majesty's orders to assemble all the Troops belonging to the Corps of Sir William Bills Detachment, who have not volunteered going to Ireland, at Poole Barracks which certainly is the fittest place for them.

I have the Honor to transmit the different Weekly States and Returns, as likewise the recommendations for vacant Commissions, for Your Majesty's approbation

I am Sir

Your Majesty's

Most Obedient Son
and Subject,

Frederick

Duke of Portland

Sept. 9 1798

8996 - 7

x

Sept 9. 1798

The Duke of Portland most humbly begs leave to acquaint Your Majesty, in addition to the despatches which he now most devotely submits to Your Majesty, that he has signified Your Majesty's gracious intentions to Mr Pelham, & is desir'd by him to lay him most humbly at Your Majesty's feet, to assure Your Majesty of his implicit obedience to the Commands Your Majesty has

has been pleased to lay upon him, & to express to your Majesty his most gratefull sense of this distinguished mark of your Majestys approbation & favour - the Duke of Portland has therefore directed the Commission to be prepared by which The Earl of Clare & Mr Pelham are to be personally appointed Lords Deputies, & it is now under the considera-tion of the Solicitor General who will have it prepared with all the dispatch which the secrecy he has been instructed to obey

Duke of Portland

Sept. 9 1798

8997

His Majesty of Great land has
by which assembly
the committee
prepared with instructed to observe

observe, with permit —

Buckingham House
Sunday 9th Sept. 1798
3. p. m.

The Duke of Portland presumes to lay before Your Majesty a copy of the Report from the Committee of Secrecy of the House of Lords of Ireland which is alluded to in Lord Castlereagh's dispatch presented & which is now officially transmitted for the first time —

Duke of Portland,
Burlington House,
9th April 1790

Duke of York

8998 - 9

Thames Guards September 12. 1790

Sir

I have the Honor to lay before Your Majesty for Your Approbation the Recommendations for the Vacant Commissions which have been received this Week, as likewise the Weekly States and Returns

I also add a Return of the Effectual Strengths of such of the Regiments of Militia and Fencibles as are embarked for Ireland and who have sent up their Returns together with the number of men of each Regiment who have refused to go. Nothing can have exceeded the Spirit and Loyalty which has been shown by every one of them, except the East Suffolk Militia and the West Downland Fencibles, only one Hundred and twenty three men of the East Suffolk turned out to go to Ireland though the whole Regiment had upon the former occasion volunteered their services, I therefore thought it right to countermand their March immediately which I trust will meet with Your Majesty's approbation. Not above forty men of the West Downland Fencibles also offered to go to Ireland, in spite of every effort of Lord Eglington's then Colonel, Sir Ralph

899 happ
her do

Almonck has therefore immediately ordered the Regiment from Glasgow to Edinburgh in order to have them under his own eye as he says that he can have no confidence in them.

The Duke of Portland has communicated to me a despatch from the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland proposing to augment the English Fusible Cavalry in Ireland to fifty five Rank and fifty w<sup>o</sup> Troop, and desiring that they may be allowed to recruit for this augmentation in Great Britain, as their Corps has been raised in Great Britain, and as it is of the most essential consequence that their Corps should not be polluted, I should humbly suppose that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to consent to the Lord Lieutenant's Request.

Understanding that it will be necessary for Your Majesty to hold a Council about the latter end of next Week to pass the Irish Bills, and that there is a difficulty in finding Councilors I will by leave to pay my duty to Your Majesty at that time at Weymouth for a few days.

I can not conclude without congratulating Your Majesty most sincerely upon the Account received this day of evening being has happily terminated in Ireland, I confess I am particularly

Duke of York

8999

Regiment from his own eyes
The order of the Regiment the
and the
of the
has been
of the
I should sincerely pleased
Your Majesty
I wish to see
of the
at that time
of the
of every thing
of the

happy that it is to be seen that the enemy has surrendered

I have the honor to be

Dear

Your Majesty

Most dutifully
and subject

Frederick

Duke of York
12th Sept: 1790

Ld. Grenville

Sep. 13 1798

9000 - 1

x

Cleveland Row Sept. 13. 1798

Lord Grenville having seen in Mr. Shepherd's dispatches the account of Count Rumford's nomination to reside in this Kingdom, with the character of Minister from the Elector of Bavaria to Your Majesty, and of his having actually set out to take upon him this Mission

9
Mipion, humbly begs leave to submit to Your Majesty whether under all the circumstances of Count Rumfords character, it may not be proper that Mr. Paget should be instructed to inform the Elector that this nomination is not agreeable to Your Majesty. Lord Grenville thinks that this may be put simply on the ground of Count Rumford being
Your

Ld. Grenville

Sep. 13 1798

9001

Your Majesty's subject, & in that respect not proper to be accredited to Your Majesty as a foreign Minister, without entering into any further particulars.

If Your Majesty should approve this idea, instructions might be sent to Sir James Craufurd to signify to Count Rumford on his arrival at Hamburg, that a notification to this effect is to be made at Munich,
and

and that he should therefore not proceed to London to take upon him a character in which he cannot be received.

Lord Ferrville,
St. James's Place,
13. Sept. 1779

Mr Pitt
Downing Street Sept 13th 1798

9002

*

Downing Street.

Thursday Sept 13th 1798

Mr Pitt humbly begs leave to submit to your Majesty a Warrant for the Appointment of Mr Hunt to the Transport Office, in order to bring Mr March whom he succeeds to the Victualling Office, where his Services are thought likely to be particularly useful; also another Warrant for an Advance to Genl Gardner (to be hereafter gradually repaid out of his Pension) to enable Him to quit Warsaw; and some other Treasury Warrants in the usual Course.

Duke of Portland

Sep. 12 1798

9003 - 4

*

The Duke of Portland has the satisfaction of laying with all humility before your Majesty the details of the action which he trusts have not only annihilated but will prevent any future attempt at an invasion of your Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland - he also begs leave with the utmost deference to your Majesty's superior wisdom to submit to your Majesty the propriety of ordering the Lord Lieutenant to strike out of the list of the Privy

Privy Counsellors of that Kingdom the name of Mr Grafton in case he shall not within a reasonable time by the same means of expulping himself from the charge of imprisonment of treason in which it appears by the Evidence of Nelson & Hughes, given upon oath to the Committee of Secrecy of the House of Lords, that he is so deeply implicated. The Duke of Portland does not mean in submitting this proposal to your Majesty to prevent a prosecution being exhibited against Mr Grafton for this crime if it shall appear to your Majesty's Law Servants in that Country

Duke of Portland

Sep. 14 1798

9004

Mr. Grattan in some means of Mason
Rogers, given
House of Lords.
He does not to prevent a this case of that Country

that there is sufficient Evidence to convict him of it in a course of Law, & all left to justice from the opinion of a Jury by removing him from the Jury Court if there is ground <sup>proved</sup> against against him by the usual forms of Law - but as your Majesty towards here entertain strong doubts of the probability of ground being found for such a proceeding & are yet not less satisfied of the reality & extent of Mr. Grattan's guilt, the Duke of Portland feels it to be his duty to represent the Case to your Majesty & humbly to request your Majesty's commands respecting it

Buckingham House
Friday 14 Sept: 1798

Duke of Portland.

Buckingham House
11. Sept. 1790

Ld. Charles Hewel Somerset

9005 - 6

Weymouth - Sunday
Sept. 16th - 1798

Sir

Having nothing to offer to your Majesty in Excuse, I shall not attempt to apologize for this Intrusion, but trust to your Majesty's well-known Goodness to forgive it.

Some friendly kind words which your Majesty condescended to say to me - "That you hoped Lord Botetourts's Estate was not entailed further than on my Father" could not fail to make a deep Impression on one whose Wife and Family are so totally unprovided for as to be reduc'd to Beggary in the Event of his Death - and those words could not also fail to impress with greater force, as they came from one, whom

90

I am bound by Nature, to revere as my Sovereign, and by every tie that can bind the human Mind to adore, as an Example to Mankind, in Virtue and Excellence, as a Husband - Father
- Friend - and as my dear Patron in particular. Having said that this kind Expression, made this Impression on my Mind - I now venture to say to Your Majesty - that it is in your Power and in your's alone, to effect this kind Wish - and at the same time that you bestow a lasting Blessing on me and my poor Children, I will venture to affirm that you will add also an Obligation on my Father, that he will consider greater than any that can be con-fer'd on him. I dare not proceed - I fear, I have already undone myself with your Majesty, for my presumption and Insolence - Wh. gives it not, my gracious Sieges, such harsh Epithets - Think that a Father pleads for four unprovided

Ld. Charles Henry Somerset

9006

Children and forgive my Boldness -

When I am afraid your Majesty has forgiven (which I humbly implore) my having gone thus far - and when I have your free permission (which I scarcely dare hope) to explain how it is in your Ma-jesty's Power so effectually to serve Me. and Mine - I will explain it - till then - per-mit me to acknowledge myself with the sincerest gratitude most truly thankful for the many great favors I have al-ready experienc'd from your Majesty and to subscribe myself with the most profound Respect

Sir

Your Majesty's most dutiful and most obliged Subject & Servant

Charles Henry Somerset

---

Local No. 1. 1900
Sept 16. 1900

Captain Bapsett
of the Beaver Schooner
September 16. 1790

Jones

9007

May it please your Majesty,

Knowing your Majesty was at Weymouth by Lieutenant Shepherd of the Pymmy letter, and judging that it might be interesting I have just time to inclose your Majesty a Copy of a Letter I wrote this Morning to My Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, which I conceive it my Duty to inform my Superi<sup>r</sup> -

General Pickering and Six Exiled Members are onboard Captain Lobb of His Majesty's Ship Plumbable - having a valuable Convoy I trust your Majesty will excuse my haste -

Beaver of the Altam
16th Sept. 90 -

I have the Honor to remain your Majesty's Obed<sup>t</sup> & very Humble Serv<sup>t</sup>.

C Bapsett Jones
Commander of His Majesty's Schooner Beaver

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on lined paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

Capt. C. Bassett Jones to Admiralty
Enclosure

9008

His Majesty's Schooner Weaver.

Sir,

I have the Honor to inform you for their Lordships information of the safe arrival of His Majesty's Schooner Weaver under my Command with part of the Leeward Island Convoy which sailed from Tortola on the 31st of July, under the charge of Captain Lobb of His Majesty's Ship L'Amable from whom we parted Company on the 25th of last Month in Latitude 39<sup>o</sup> 05' N. Longitude 39<sup>o</sup> 15' W. having been ordered by him to attend on His Majesty's Armed Storeship L'Espresso, (at that period in the utmost distress) distant from the Convoy about Six Leagues SW. at Sun set that evening. I have the satisfaction to inform their Lordships that during a short interval between two violent Gales, I had just time to save the lives of all the Officers and Crew of the said Ship, the further particulars of which I must refer their Lordships to Captain Reynolds's Letter of this days date.

Having made Sail to join the Convoy, on the 28th of August being moderate in Lat<sup>o</sup> 41<sup>o</sup> 00' N. Long<sup>o</sup> 35<sup>o</sup> 55' W. I lay too all Day too ~~many~~ such of them as were near me, which amounted to the Number as <sup>the</sup> enclosed List.

On the 11th instant being in Latitude  $49^{\circ} 20' N$ . Longth  $14: 00' W$
I spoke the whole of them and order'd the Ships bound up the North Channel not to part, that I should see them safe into Falmouth were they would get a Coasting Convoy, but a Gale at NW came on early on that Evening and they all haul'd up W by N, disobey' my Signals and we parted Company. — I am sorry to add that it is very probable some of the Convoy were totally lost in the Second Gale, several of them were in great distress and the Weather too bad to afford them Assistance. — His Majesty's Sloop although not a fast Sailer proves uncommonly easy and a good Sea Boat. — The enclosed Lists I have the Honor to send for their Lordships inspection.

and remain Sir,

Your very obedient Servant.

C. Bassett Jones

Lord Charles Somerset

September 17. 1790

9009

Sire

Weymouth. Monday
Sept. 17th 1790

That Your Majesty should receive my Letter without Displeasure, was all I could hope - but that You should add to my most sanguine Hopes the kind Expressions You condescended to use towards me - fills me with a Gratitude, I am totally unable to express - Receive, Sire, I beg, the humble - the unfeigned Thanks of an Heart overcome by your Goodness - overwhelmed by your Bounty.

Still dare I scarcely explain what I have requested Your Majesty's Leave to do - but encouraged by your all-prevailing Goodness I venture to say - that the only Method by which I can succeed

& what Your Majesty so kindly hinted to me - is that my Grandmother's Barony of Botetourt should descend to me at her Death -

Scarcely know what to add - After the kindness with which Your Majesty treated my letter yesterday - I ought not to dread Your Displeasure - and yet when I reflect on my own unworthiness and the little Claim I have in Your Majesty's favor, I can hardly hope for forgiveness for such Presumption

I should be tempted to offer to Your Majesty some assurances of my Attachment but that the blackest Ingratitude in Characterize me - did I not already feel myself bound & sacrifice not only my but every thing more dear for my Sovereign's Welfare -

I have the Honor to subscribe myself with the greatest Respect

Sine
Your Majesty's most obliged & most dutiful Subject & Servant
Charles Henry Somerset

Duke of Portland,

Burlington House 19. Sept. 1790.

9010

The Duke of Portland most humbly begs leave to acquaint Your Majesty that twenty two Bills have been transmitted from Ireland for Your Majesty's signature & are now before The Attorney General, but as The Lord Lieutenant informs the Duke of Portland that the remainder of those which are intended to pass this Session will be ready in a few days the Duke

of Portland country, presumes that Your Majesty will prefer being attended with them all at the same time ~~for~~ & that they may be ready in the course of next week if it shall be Your Majesty's pleasure to order a Council to be held at Westminster for that purpose of signing them

Buckingham House
Wednesday 19 Sept: 1738

Duke of York

September 19. 1790

9011

Horn Guards September 19. 1790

Sir

I beg leave to return Your Majesty my most humble thanks for Your gracious permission to pay my duty to Your Majesty at Weymouth and mean to have that honor next Monday.

I accept with many thanks of M<sup>rs</sup> Musters obliging offer to lodge at her house as I did during the life time of her late husband.

I am exceedingly happy to hear that Your Majesty is pleased with the appearance of the 3 Dragon Guards, I have always thought Colonel Payne one of our most promising officers of Cavalry and had no doubt of his bringing that Regiment into order.

In obedience to Your Majesty's orders contained in Your letter of last week, I sent directions to Major General Nicolls at Liverpool

<sup>with further orders</sup> to stop the sailing of such of the Regiments of Militia as had not as yet proceeded to Ireland, but every one them had already sailed.

I have the Honor to transmitt the Weekly States and Returns, as likewise the Recommendations for the Vacant Commissions, for Your Majesty's approbation and have the Honor to remain, Sir

Your Majesty's

Most dutifull Son
and Subject

Frederick

Admiralty. 20. Sept. 1798.

9012

The Redacteur of the 15th Sept<sup>r</sup> contains a message from the Directory, stating, "that Bonaparte, after making himself master of Alexandria & Rosetta had entered Cairo on the 23<sup>d</sup> of August; In the same paper it is stated that the Squadron under Adm<sup>l</sup>. Broussin being at anchor on the Coast Megquiers making the necessary preparations to return to France, was attacked by the English Squadron of superior Force, that the action was maintained on both sides with unparalleled obstinacy, that during

during the action the French Admiral's Ship was burnt, that two or three French Ships were sunk, that others, both French & English, being disabled were driven on shore, and that other French Vessels remained perfect wrecks, for whose fate much curiosity is entertained.

Admiralty Office
20 Sep: 1798

Ld. Spencer

Sep. 20 1798

9013 - 4

x

Earl Spencer has the Honour of laying before your Majestys the Proceedings and Sentence of a Court Martial on 25 others belonging to the Defence for a traitorous & mutinous Conspiracy to murder their Officers & carry the Ship over to the Enemy. Earl Spencer is much concerned to be obliged to state to your Majesty that on an attentive Perusal of the Minutes, he cannot see any Ground for extending the Recommendation to your Majesty: Mercy farther than the cannot have done in their sentence; and he therefore humbly submits to your Majesty that the eleven Men following viz: John Brady, William Lindsay, David Reed, Thomas Dealyshin, Nicholas Ryan, Cornelius Caloghan, Richard Kennedy, Thomas Laffin, Edward Winney, Michael Kelly, and Edward Mac-Laughlin should be ordered for Execution; and that the eight following, viz: John Hopkins, Christopher Mahane, Terence Dunn, Thomas Jourdain, James Carron, Patrick Devoy, Peter McGuire and John Hoare should receive your Majesty's most precious Pardon on condition of their being transported for life to Botany Bay.

Ld. Spencer

Sep. 20 1798

9014

Your Majesty will perceive by the Date of this Note that Paul Mercer has availed himself of your Majesty's Permission to reside for a few Days in the County; but as all the necessary arrangements had been settled previous to his Departure he trusts that your Majesty's Service will not suffer by his absence.

N. Creek 20 Sep: 1798.

be therefore the eleven in Lindsey Ryan,
Thomas Laffin
Edward Mac
; and that
Christopher
James Cannon
Hoare Hunt
Pardon on life to

Earl Spencer
20th Sept 1798

Duke of Portland

Sep. 21 1798

9015_6

In obedience to your Majesty's Commands the Duke of Portland most humbly begs leave to submit to your Majesty that as there is the best reason to believe from the postscript of a private letter from Lord Castlereagh to Mr Wickham that the rest of the Bills to be passed this Session will be transmitted from Dublin in the course of this day that

They

70
They may be ready for Your Majesty's Royal Signature on Friday next, it is the intention of The Lord Chancellor & the Duke of Portland to be at Weymouth on that day time enough to attend Your Majesty if it shall be Your Majesty's pleasure to receive the Report of the Council any time in the course of it. The Duke of Portland will lose no time in obeying Your Majesty's commands respecting the attendance of another Privy

Duke of Portland

Sep. 21 1798

9016

Signature

Cancelled?

Cancelled

on that day

shall be

of the

Duke of

Myself

Privy

Buckingham House
Friday 21st Sept. 1798
3. p. m.

The Duke of Anthon
21st Sept: 1792

Duke of York

September 22. 1790

9017

Callands September 22. 1790

Sir

I have the Honor to return Your Majesty my most humble thanks for Your very gracious Letter, as well as for Your great Condescension in acquainting me with Your having appointed the Council to meet at Weymouth only at the End of next Week. I shall therefore, with Your Majestys permission pay my duty to You on Wednesday next instead of Monday, having some particular Business which I wish to finish.

I beg leave to congratulate Your Majesty upon the Intelligence received yesterday by the French Papers of the total Destruction of the French Fleet in the Mediterranean, though in general Little Confidence can be placed in what is found in these papers, yet it is hardly possible to imagine that such intelligence which of true trust is so detrimental to all the French Projects in Europe would have been allowed to be published if it had been so well ascertained, that it could not be either concealed or denied

I have the Honor to be

Sir

Your Majesty's

Most Obedient Son

and Subject

Frederick

Carl Spencer

24th Sept. 1798

9018

x

Your Majesty having expressed a Wish that the St. Domingo Frigate could have been ordered to attend upon your Majesty at Weymouth, which from her being in Dock at the time, was impossible to be effected when your Majesty went there, Carl Spencer has now the Honour of acquainting your Majesty that the St. Domingo has been ordered to proceed to Weymouth Roads as soon as she is ready for sea which will probably be in a very few days, and he hopes that the other ships ahead, though they are not likely to sail as well as the St. Domingo will however be equal to attend upon your Majesty in any Excursion which you may be pleased to make.

Admiralty 24 Sep: 1798.

Duke of Portland

Sep. 24 1798

9019 - 20
X

The Duke of Portland most humbly begs leave, in consequence of the Lord Lieutenant's request, to submit to Your Majesty the usual instrument for the signature of Your Majesty's permission to the Lord Chancellor of Ireland to absent himself from that Kingdom, & for the appointment of Compositors of the Great Seal

72
9
I feel always his absence - The Duke of Portland is not yet informed that the remainder of the Bills are yet arrived, but from the urgency, with which it is proposed that the Lord Lieutenant's request for the Lord Chamberlain's leave of absence should be laid before your Majesty, & the hope which is entertained by them that a period may be put to the Session on the 5th of October, the Duke of Portland flatters himself that <sup>all</sup> the Bills will be ready to be reported to your Majesty on Friday.

The Duke of Portland most humbly begs leave to offer his most

Duke of Portland

Sep. 24 1798

9020 is not yet small, but from Lieutenant's request

I had before you that a period
the Duke of ready, to be reported

most anxious & earnest wishes that the expectation you have understand to express in your note of last Saturday, may be fulfilled to its utmost extent

Paulskote

Monday 24th Sept<sup>r</sup> 1798

me to offer his
most

The Duke of Devonshire
21st Sept: 1798

Ld. Grenville

Sep. 26 1798

9021 - 2

X

Cleveland Row Sept. 26. 1798
3 P.M.

Ld Grenville cannot transmit to Your Majesty the enclosed dispatches from Sir Martin Eden & Mr. Smith, which seem to put the defeat of the French Fleet near Alexandria beyond all doubt, without humbly offering to Your Majesty his dutiful and respectful congratulations on the fresh Custre

lustre given by this happy event to the brilliant successes of Your Majesty's Navy in the course of this War.

Lord Grenville has consulted with such of Your Majesty's servants as are in town, who have agreed with him in the propriety of submitting to Your Majesty their humble advice in favour of the acceptance of proposals of Alliance such as have been made from Naples, and the

Ld. Cirencester

Sep. 26 1798

9022

to the
to the sulted
to as him in Majesty
the me such
and
the

the Port; and he is preparing the necessary papers to that effect, which he hopes, with Your Majesty's permission, to be enabled to dispatch by Tuesday's Mail.

Lord Grenville,
26th Sept. 1794
Blenheim House

9023 - 4

Lord Grenville,
Cleveland Row, 20. Sept. 1798.

Cleveland Row Sept 28. 1798

Lord Grenville has the honour most respectfully to submit to Your Majesty the Minute of instructions to be given to Your Majesty's Minister at Constantinople, together with the draft of the Project to which it refers, and the Instrument of Your Majesty's full Powers authorizing him to sign the Alliance in this shape, either jointly or in conjunction with his brother Sir Sidney Smith if he should arrive in time, which is doubtful it having on the whole appeared better that he should proceed there in his ship, rather than on land as had at first been intended.
the

In a full discussion with M. de Arcello yesterday Lord Grenville found that

that altho' furnished with full Powers for the purpose he was afraid to take upon him to sign the Alliance in the uncertainty which still prevails respecting the conduct of the Court of Vienna.

Lord Grenville judged that it was by no means proper that this matter should appear to be proposed on Your Majesty's part, and therefore proposed that the whole negotiation should be referred to Naples to be treated there by the means of full Powers to be sent to Your Majesty's Minister

at

at that Court. M. de Carcello readily agreed to this, and his messenger will set off on Tuesday for Naples with the account of what has passed.

Lord Grenville does not think that any difficulty can arise with respect to the Articles of the Treaty, if the resolution were once definitively taken at Naples to meet the danger of War, as being less than that of such a Peace as they now enjoy. The point of Subsidy was much pressed, but Lord Grenville felt himself obliged to answer that Your Majesty's actual engagements of that nature were so extensive as not to admit of any addition.