

J. of Cumberland
Cumberland House May 20th 1765.

91

Sir

I shall ever obey your orders with obedience and readiness all I hope is I am only ordered and expected on this occasion

I dont imagine these reports ought to break a moment of Your Majesties rest I wish wth God you had no more formidable ^{Enemies} than these poor wretches

I shall attend at eleven at Sr James with that zeal affection your most humble dutifull & attached Uncle

Servant & subject

William