MSO/16/2/107

Sir

I did not lose an instant even I presented myself to the Queen to ask Her Majesty's permission to obey Your Royal Highness's commands by attend-ing the consultation at one o'clock tomorrow — The Queen has granted my request graciously, but on the express condition that I return im-mediately and without the loss of an instant from Carlton House. It grieves me sincerely to know that your Royal Highness has paid another bad night — tho' the con-tinuance of your pain, Sir, does not shake my confidence in the smallest degree in your Royal Highness's ultimate recovery.
I am, Sir,

most respectfully your Royal Highness,
faithful servant

Henry Halford
