My dear Brother

I am happy to say the King has passed a very quiet comfortable day - I hear Charlotte was very well and making to day a bundle of linen. I was attend^d to the day in the Queen Carriage with our lady -

Yours
Mary

My dear Brother

The King has passed a very good quiet day decided to go to bed before 5 o'clock & has been asleep since 10 o'clock.
He has passed a very delightful day at New Cross all over the Garden & saw so much of that dear old place as we could in the time I was with the Queen enjoying himself & expressing so much pleasure at seeing the Gardens & these affairs & all the old servants that one remaining. - I'll give as a favour your dinner in Court House the Band played beautifully. I must obey with us as well as Mrs. Howe ^{she} ~~was~~ was in high good & quite in her old good spirits full of joke and fun, she had many enquiries after you & said she had a great pleasure to drive one and see the house you the colours, but in a whisper in any case she said for fear of the I having been very short in to write the Prince of Wales not to see an advertisement you the House - So God bless

Your humble

My dearest Brother

tolerable quiet day but not quite so free from irritation as he was here for some time passed - Charlotte has been unwell all day with a bad head-ache she did go out ~~with~~ my Sisters this morning but was so uncomfortable this evening that she could not come to the cotte -

My dear Brother
This day has been very stormy the King looked so ill that John Bullis thought it proper to speak to the King which caused a most violent rage for a time The King has been quiet since but inclined to talk a great deal He went to bed well, but was not asleep when we heard that He refused his breakfast this morning but eat a very good dinner -
Yours truly
John Bullis

My dear Brother
This day has been one of much visitation. Myself has talked more than he has done for the last four weeks. I hope however he has not been relaxed to mind to his usual

Yours Affly

My dear Brother

Arthur has been under some excitement to day talked down & has been humored, but since his dinner he has become calmer and has a soft smile & a look - the dinner found Charlotte better to day -

My dearest Brother
The King has passed a very quiet day & though he has talked a great deal here in perfect good temper & had little conversation about him He made a good dinner & went to bed well -

August the 31 -

My dear Brother
Nothing to say this day talking as fast as possible but all in good humour - He got an hour sleep after breakfast which calmed him down again - but the turn of this day has been much as yesterday - He made a good dinner & went to bed well, but has been sneezing & coughing ever since - He quarrelled with the Pells yesterday & in the very unfit state he is in they did not venture to offer him the Pells to day I hope continues in a very much longer state & but have not of late more yet
Yours truly
G. M. W.

My dearest Brother the King has passed a quiet day & has been very comfortable Charlotte has continued to get her cold on the head & I find the sore is not much relieved by the Blister however she was to take her drive —

Yours
Macy
