My dearest Mother

Arthur has passed a very quiet good day - Richard is better & I'm happy to think a day or two will not be very anxious, but it is very difficult to keep her from taking great colic with the best stomach (as you know) & therefore requires it time to recover the real muscle she does herself in eating a meal -

Charlotte is certainly not well but I'm sorry to hear she has come out again in a day or two. - God bless you

Yours

Mary

My dear Brother
I have been an untiring talkative day & my appearance of a strong flouring eye - The conversation has been very good at times to say & the King is hearted & inclined to be very kind & violent in his expressions - but not to be well -

Sophia has been out in the carriage these times but her strength does not return so we could not -

My dear Brother,

The King has been very gentle & wrapped all day -

Charlotte made her appearance for the first time this evening at the (cottage)

still complain of cold and certainly looks very ill & stated and as if she wanted both air and exercise -

Yours truly
The King

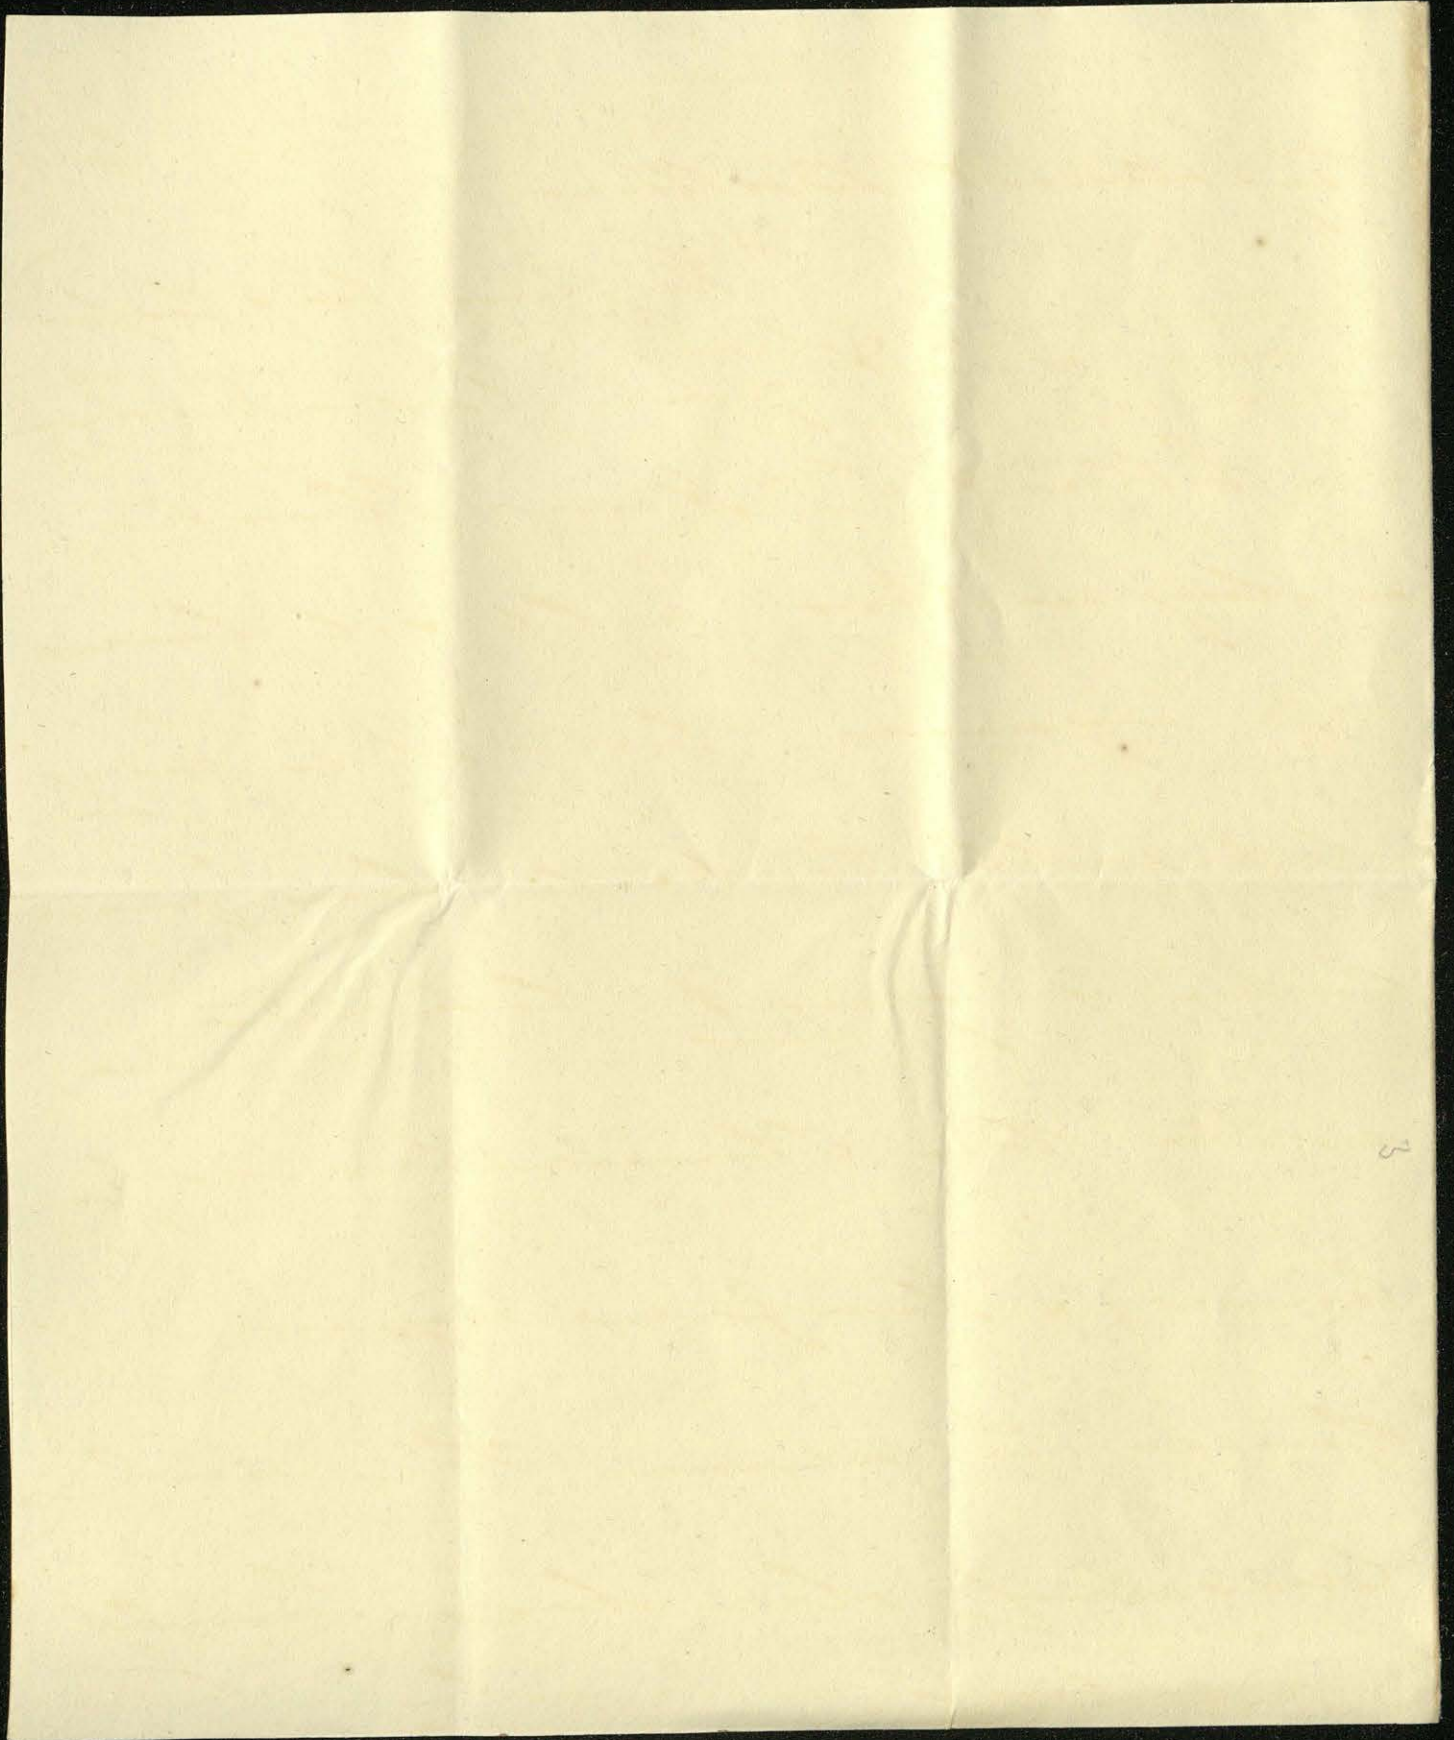

The Queen is much better

My dear Brother
This day has been my dress, part of it given but This evening the King has talked a great deal & has very wonderfully shown he meant to be well & is a sleep -

Yours
Mary

My dear Brother
I have had a very quiet but talking day and felt much irritation about the A. B. C. and the discovery of the understand from the they found the
with on the face
I am
joy of the

My dearest Brother Mummy has talked a great deal to day, but all in good humour. She slept more than two hours in the course of the evening and to bed tolerably & stopped asleep at 10 o'clock - Mummy has been my nurse but at times to day -

My dear Brother this has been a very talkative day & rather from the start is coming on as the talkings was increased to day - The King must be led by his own desire at sea & I think & have had an hour sleep since

My dear Mr. Butler

The King has hoped to my father's stay but all in good humour & stayed as long as possible He has been to some 6 days to see the Prince of Orange & take leave of my aunt -

Yours
affectionately
John

My dear Brother

I am glad to say that the King's imitation has increased very much today he has talked the whole day & has very much inclined to be silent at times - I should be glad to sleep to night & had Mother & see Henry very the King will be in a decided possession to summer, but it is to be hoped he may sleep & sleep in the course of the English -
