

that should be made & instead every thing is to go on the same / during the printing the fugitive abuses / which are in almost - She is much dissatisfied - The Queen's House is likewise to be furnished with gold & the Queen is to have so thousand a year to keep that up as well that money to do what she pleases with - The power if she goes to France to take care of the Cooks or Kitchen People she pleases all at the King's expense and when any people come to be off her hands likewise I really think she has too reason to complain - and full power to ask what she pleases, as the upper Judge, ministers officers she will have some enough to judge all these things were inserted in my name and name at a time there there in 4 people & I can not suppose the same will be done & kept from me —

The expressed great surprise at Mr Pennell not coming into his office to hear the complaint & see the statement from the King's Solicitor told me as your integrity exposed the honor of any responsibility & that you had not health or strength to undertake any at the same time added good heartedly you wished to deliver his personal advantage from an impartial statement Mr Pennell was wished to consider you as far as he could and by leaving every thing as it is here at the Castle & saving every inconvenience he could not receive your debts fully therefore the 10 thousand pounds is given you on the 2<sup>d</sup> & you may employ that sum any way

not see if her daughters had
the same advantage. Taylor explained that this was done
& to make us to have
which if we encouraged will be useful to show her that should any thing happen to her from being an English her money is secured to get us out properly without calling any more upon you in the country - all this did not make things better

* I believe Boyles left her very much displeas'd - She indeed has not said one word to say on the subject - I wish found her any more pleas'd but left doubtless she is expect'd She has some much and of thoughts all day since all things considered I am I am glad it is to be as it is God bless you & let me see yours M

MAJESTY QUEEN ELIZABETH II
